Venice, October 19.

BY a Vessel, which arrived here 2 days ago from Corfou, we have advice, that the Captain-General Mocenigo was returned with the Fleet of this State to Napoli di Romania, and that the Gallies of Malta are gone home. This week arrived at the Lido 800 Men of the new Levy made by the Count de Hobenloo for the Service of this State, and the rest are daily expected, who will be sent to the Levant with the Convoy that is now preparing, and which may be ready to sail towards the end of this month. The last Letters from the Morea say, that the Turks have, since the Repulse they received in their attempt to force the Pass of Corinth, been very quiet on that side.

From the Confederate Camp near S. Ambroise, Oct. 20. On the 13th instant we encamped between Doiron and Grughasco, not far from Rivole, where we continued till the 19th. Several Detachements being in the mean time sent towards Veillane, which place we possessed our selves of without any opposition, the Troops the Enemy had there retiring upon our approach. Monsieur Catinat has left the Neighbourhood of Pignerol, and is going to repass the Mountains, having posted 15 or 16 Battalions of Foot on the Hills about Susa, to defend the Passes and Avenues to that place. Yesterday we decamped; Our Horse moved towards Pignerol, and our Foot and Dragoons towards this place. To morrow we shall continue our march towards Susa, whither General Steinau is sent before with a strong Detachment of Horse and Foot.

Turin, October 20. Our Army decamped yesterday from Rivole; A Party of Horse is sent towards Pignerol to cover the Country on that side, and the rest of the Army is marched towards Susa, which they intend to attack; The French are Masters of the Hills round the place, where they have cast up several Redoubts, and the forcing them from thence will be the most difficult part of this Enterprize, for the Works of the place are of no great strength. Monsieur Catinat's Army is separated, most of the Horse has passed the Mountains to return home, and the greatest part of the Foot is marched through the Valley of Perouse towards Susa, and 3000 men remain under Monsieur de Fenquieres about Pignerol.

From the King of Poland's Camp near Cherlon in Moldavia, Septemb. 28. After having suffered very much in our march through a Country which afforded very little for our Subsistence, we are now advanced within 6 miles of Jassi, the Capital City of this Province, where we find great plenty of Corn, Wine, and several sorts of Fruits. We have not for these 8 or 10 days past heard any thing of the Tartars till this morning, when one of their Parties appeared, probably, to observe us. 'Tis not yet known when we shall decamp from hence; or whither we shall direct our next march. The Hospodar or Prince of Moldavia is retired from Jassi, and has sent out Circular Letters to require all his Subjects, able to bear Arms, to come to his assistance. We have advice, that 6000 Cossacks, commanded by the Castellan of Chelm, have taken the Fortress of Sorocke on the Niester, and burnt several Villages thereabouts, after having defeated a Body of Tartars that came to oppose them. The Inhabitants of Sorocke were all put to the Sword.

Vienna, October 28. We have had no Letters from the Imperial Camp in Hungary since those of the 19th, which gave an account, that our Troops had taken by assault that part of the Town with the Palank that lies on this side the River Keres, and that they hoped in 3 or 4 days to be Masters likewise of the Palank on the other side the River; That their new invented Bombs had succeeded very well against the Town, and they promised themselves a good effect from them towards reducing the Citadel, which is fortified with 5 Bastions, and a broad and deep wet Ditch. We hear from Lippi, of an ill Accident that has befallen Count Marfigli in his return towards Belgrade; of which they tell us these Particulars; The Rascians being informed, that a Party of Turks and Tartars had passed the River Maros, and committed some Spoil in the neighbouring Country, they placed themselves in an Ambush to fall upon them in their retreat; 'Tis unfortunately fell out, that Count Marfigli and the Turkish Chiaux that accompanied him, passed by with their Servants at that very time; and being in Turkish Habits, the Rascians, taking them for some of the Enemy, sallied out, and killed the Chiaux and his Servant, and Count Marfigli received a dangerous Wound with a Sable in his Head, and another in his Arm, before the Rascians knew who they were. From Sclavonia we have advice, that the Duke de Croy was marched with his Cavalry towards Gradisca, and that his Infantry was returned to Esseck.

Hydelberg, November 3. The French have reinforced the Garrison of Philipsburgh to 5000 Men, and have put 3000 into Landau. The Winter Quarters for the Confederate Troops are now quite settled. The Suedish Troops have quitted our Neighbourhood, and continue their march towards the Dutchy of Bremen. They write from Strasbourg, that the French Troops are gone into their Winter Quarters; And the Marschal de Lorge returned to Paris; The Marquis d' Uxelles being to command in Alsace this Winter.

Cologne, Novemb. 6. The Garrison of this place will be reinforced by the Circle to 3000 Men, and to form a Line from the Rhine to the Meuse, 24000 Men of the Troops of Brandenburg, Cologne, Netherlands.
