THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following Decree respecting quarantine from Her Majesty's Representative at Berlin, viz. :—

(Translation.)

DECREE concerning Restriction of Imports from South America (issued 21st December, 1899).

WE, William, &c., decree in the name of the Empire, after due approval by the Bundesrath, as follows :—

§1. In order to prevent the introduction of the plague ("pest"), the importation of body linen, old and worn articles of clothing, used bedding, and rags of every kind is forbidden until further notice.

§2. The prohibition, contained in §1, does not apply to body linen, bedding, and articles of clothing which travellers carry with them for their personal use, or which they introduce into the country when moving their households from place to place. Nevertheless, the permission to import the same may be made dependent upon previous disinfection.

§3. The Imperial Chancellor is empowered to make exceptions to this prohibition and to prescribe other precautionary measures.

§4. This Decree comes into force on the day of its promulgation.
