

consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-second day of February next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-second day of February.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 11th day of January, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act 1853" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving notice to the Incumbents and Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of twenty-fifth October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, as relates to burials in the parishes of Llanwonno and Llantwit-Vairdre, in the county of Glamorgan, should be varied by substituting for the directions contained therein, with respect to the said parishes, the directions hereinafter set forth :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine to give notice of such representation; and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of January, one thousand nine hundred, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first recited Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following directions be substituted for those contained in the said Order in Council of the twenty-fifth October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, viz. :—

PONTYPRIDD.—(A.) So much of the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one as relates to the chapelyards of Calvary, Libanus, and Sardis, in the parish of Llantwit-Vairdre, be varied so as to read :—

(a.) Forthwith and entirely in Calvary Chapel, Llantwit-Vairdre, in the parish of Pontypridd in the county of Glamorgan, and also in the chapelyard.

(b.) Forthwith and entirely in Sardis Chapel, Llantwit-Vairdre, in the parish of Pontypridd in the county of Glamorgan; and also in the chapelyard except as follows :—

In the walled grave now existing the burial of Mr. Edmund Phillips, at his decease, may be allowed on condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(c.) Forthwith and entirely in Libanus Chapel, Llantwit-Vairdre, in the parish of Pontypridd in the county of Glamorgan; and also in the chapelyard except as follows :—

In family vaults or walled graves now existing burials may be allowed of Mr. John Davies and Mrs. Morgan, at their decease, on condition that each coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(B.) So much of the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, as relates to Carmel and Penuel Chapels, in the parish of Llanwonno, in the county of Glamorgan, should be varied so as to read :—

Forthwith and entirely in Carmel and Penuel Chapels, Llanwonno, in the parish of Pontypridd in the county of Glamorgan; in Carmel Chapelyard; and also in Penuel Chapelyard except as follows :—

In the grave now existing the burial of Mr. Walter Games at his decease may be allowed.
