A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul Blackpool situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church Blackpool in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul Blackpool situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Christ Church Blackpool which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul Blackpool situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul Blackpool.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul Blackpool situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul Blackpool being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church Blackpool in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester which is bounded upon the west by the Irish Sea upon the north by the parish of Bispham upon the east by the parish of Poulton in the Fylde both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-east and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Poulton in the Fylde from the parish of Christ Church Blackpool aforesaid at the point distant six and a half chains or thereabouts to the south-west of Bispham Railway Station where the said boundary crosses the north-western boundary of the land occupied by the Poulton and Blackpool Branch Line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North Western Joint Railway and extending thence south-westward along the said north-western boundary of the said branch line of railway for a distance of sixty-six and a half chains or thereabouts to a point at the middle of the south-eastern end of Sherbourne-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cheltenham-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eleven and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Egerton-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of sixteen yards or thereabouts to its junction with Eaves-street and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight and a quarter chains to its junction with Warbrick-road and extending thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line (thereby passing to the south of the Imperial Hydropathic Hotel and crossing the Queen's Drive
