A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of February in the year one thousand nine hundred in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Dingat New Tredegar situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Tredegar in the county of Monmouth and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Tredegar and of the parish of Bedwelty, in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Tredegar and of the said parish of Bedwelty should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Dingat New Tredegar situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, both of the vicarage of the said new parish of Tredegar and of the rectory of the said parish of Bedwelty (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Tredegar and of the said parish of Bedwelty which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Dingat New Tredegar situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Dingat New Tredegar.'

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Dingat New Tredegar, comprising all those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Tredegar and of the parish of Bedwelty both in the county of Monmouth and in the diocese of Llandaff, which taken together are bounded upon the north-west by the parish of Rhymney in the said county and diocese upon the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint Tyfaelog Pontlottyn and partly by the parish of Gelligaer, both in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east, upon the east, and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Gelligaer from the parish of Bedwelty aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge which carries the road leading from the George Inn, Brithdir, to Bedwelty Common otherwise Common Coed-y-Moeth over the River Rhymney, and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the eastern side of the bridge which carries the Rhymney branch line of the Brecon and Merthyr Railway over such road upon the western side of the said Common, and extending thence northward along the wall or fence forming the boundary between the said branch line of railway and the said Common for a distance of three chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where such wall or fence meets the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the same Common and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to a point due west of the junction of the road leading from the house called Coed-y-Moeth with the road leading from Bedwelty along the western side of Bedwelty Mountain to Tredegar, and extending thence due eastward and in a direct line for a distance of three-quarters of a chain or thereabouts to the said junction of the two last-mentioned roads and extending thence generally northward or north-westward along the middle of the said road leading from Bedwelty to Tredegar for a distance of three miles and thirty chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Bedwelty from the new parish of Tredegar aforesaid) to the point where such road is joined by the road which leads from New Tredegar past the Mountain Ash public-house and extending thence due westward and in a straight line for a distance of seventy-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Tredegar from the parish of Rhymney aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the
