

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Simonburn and of the parish of Warden in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the Schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Simonburn and of the said parish of Warden should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter Humshaugh situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this representation and caused his episcopal seal to be affixed hereto) with the consent of Your Majesty's Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Simonburn (in testimony whereof two of the said Commissioners for executing the said office of Lord High Admiral have respectively signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Reverend George Cruddas of Nether Warden Hexham in the said county of Northumberland Clerk in Holy Orders as the patron of the vicarage of the parish of Warden aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Simonburn and of the said parish of Warden which are described in the Schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter Humshaugh situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter Humshaugh.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter Humshaugh being:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Simonburn in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle which is comprised within and coextensive with the limits of the township of Haughton of the township of Humshaugh (inclusive of the territory called Black Carts and Ryehill) and also of that portion of the township of Walwick which lies to the north-east of the site of the Roman Wall.

"2. And also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Warden in the said county and diocese which is bounded upon the north-east by the above-described portion of the parish of Simonburn aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north-west upon the south-west and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Simonburn from the parish of Warden aforesaid where the middle of the road leading from Simonburn past the house called Sharpley crosses the site of the said Roman Wall and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the high road leading from Carlisle to Newcastle-upon-Tyne and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the said high road for a distance of one mile and twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point at or near the houses called or known as Walwick where such high road crosses the site of the said Roman Wall upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Warden from the parish of Simonburn aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle. A. W. FitzRoy.
