

the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventeenth day of September last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued, viz. :—

WOLLASTON, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Baptist and Congregational Chapels, and in the burying grounds attached thereto.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of November, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of "The Burial Act, 1853," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

NEWBURN-ON-TYNE, NORTHUMBERLAND.—

Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Newburn-on-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland; and also in the parts of the churchyard which lie to the south and south-west of the church, except as follows:—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the relations of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

GREAT MAPLESTEAD, ESSEX.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Great Maplestead, in the county of Essex, and also in the Dynes Hall Private Chapel attached to the church.

MANSTON, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Manston, in the county of York; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the relations of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

(c.) In reserved grave spaces which have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed, at their decease, of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

YOXFORD, SUFFOLK.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Yoxford, in the county of Suffolk; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the relations of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

(c.) In reserved grave spaces not exceeding six in number which have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water; burials may be allowed, at their decease, of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-fourth day of December next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-fourth day of December.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, November 12, 1900.

LONDON GOVERNMENT ACT, 1899.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to confirm a Scheme made under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, viz. :—"The Holborn, Finsbury, and Westminster (Sanitary Authorities) Scheme, 1900."
