

exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Application of Order.

1. The provisions of this Order shall apply to every dog brought to Great Britain from any other country, except Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, unless such dog is accompanied by a Licence issued by the Board of Agriculture authorizing the landing of such dog in Great Britain.

Detention of Dogs on ships in port.

2. Every dog to which this Order applies shall at all times while on board a vessel in any port in Great Britain be—

- (a) secured to some part of the vessel by a collar and chain and muzzled with a wire cage muzzle so constructed as to render it impossible for such dog while wearing the same to bite any person or animal, but not so as to prevent such dog from breathing freely or lapping water; or
(b) confined in an enclosed part of the vessel from which the dog cannot escape.

Offences.

3. If any dog is not secured, muzzled, or confined as required by this Order, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the master of the vessel on board which the dog is or has been carried, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Commencement.

4. This Order shall come into operation on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred.

Short Title.

5. This Order may be cited as the IMPORTATION OF DOGS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1900.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred.
