

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Silas, Blackburn, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Paul Blackburn in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint James Blackburn upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Mary, Mellor, upon the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint Mark, Witton, and partly by the district chapelry of Saint Barnabas Blackburn, all in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the east and the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Barnabas Blackburn from the new parish of Saint Paul Blackburn aforesaid at the point where Preston New-road is joined by the road called or known as Adelaide-terrace and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Hope-terrace and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Duke's Brow and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction with West Park-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the south-western boundary of the Corporation Park between the said last-named road and Alexandra-road and extending thence in precisely the same direction that is to say north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the said Park) to a point distant seven chains or thereabouts from the north-western side of the Park lake upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul Blackburn from the new parish of Saint James Blackburn aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her

Majesty chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Saint Luke Sambrook in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Sambrook is now vested in John Sidney Burton Borough of Chetwynd Park in the parish of Chetwynd in the said county of Salop Esquire one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace during his life without impeachment of waste with remainder to the use of his first and other sons successively according to their respective seniorities and the heirs male of the body of every such son with divers remainders over in default of such issue.

"And whereas the said John Sidney Burton Borough is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Sambrook now vested in him for his life with remainders as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Edgmond in the said county of Salop and his successors.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Augustus Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield is consenting to the transfer of patronage hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed and in token of his consent thereto (which by the Acts hereinbefore recited or by some or one of them is made necessary) he the said Augustus Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it is intended if and when the transfer of patronage hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall have been duly carried out that the income of the said benefice of Saint Luke Sambrook shall be augmented out of the revenues of the said rectory of the parish of Edgmond.

"And whereas it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Luke Sambrook which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Saint Luke Sambrook being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Sidney Burton Borough (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Augustus Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical
