

Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Sambrook now vested in the said John Sidney Burton Borough as such tenant for life with remainders as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said John Sidney Burton Borough and from the person or persons entitled in remainder as aforesaid to the said Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Edgmond and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Edgmond and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Jude situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint James, Doncaster in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint James Doncaster, and of the new parish (sometime district) of Balby-with-Hexthorpe in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint James, Doncaster, and of the said new parish of Balby-with-Hexthorpe should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Jude situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York, as such Archbishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Balby-with-Hexthorpe and with the consent of the Right Honourable Edmund Baron Grimthorpe as the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Doncaster (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint James Doncaster, and of the said new parish of Balby-with-Hexthorpe which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Jude situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Jude, Doncaster.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Jude, Doncaster, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint James Doncaster in the county of York and in the diocese of York which is bounded on the north-west by the parish of Sprotbrough in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south-west by the new parish (sometime district) of Balby-with-Hexthorpe in the said county and diocese and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the south-east and on the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish of Balby-with-Hexthorpe from the new parish of Saint James Doncaster aforesaid at the point in the middle of the Sheffield and Doncaster branch line of the Great Central Railway immediately opposite to the centre of Barnstone-street at which point Little Moor-lane formerly crossed the said branch line of railway and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same branch line of railway for a distance of forty and three-quarters chains or thereabouts to a point at or near to the middle of the western end of Nine Arch-Bridge which carries over the same branch line of railway the roadway leading from Saint Sepulchre Gate into Hexthorpe-road and known in part as Bridge-terrace and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the middle of Bridge-terrace aforesaid) to
