"And in case you shall upon full consideration and enquiry be satisfied therewith, we request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents aforesaid by your report to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"The SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate from the said parish of Llantrisant all that portion thereof which is edged green on the plan annexed hereto and is bounded on the north by the line drawn along the River Rhondda which now forms the boundary between the parishes of Llanwonno and Llantrisant from a point in the centre of the River Rhondda due south of the letter 'W' of Well in Hopkinstown marked in the 6-inch Ordnance Survey and due north of the point at which the stream, which flows through Gelliwion Wood, empties itself into the River Rhondda, up the river to the point in the centre of the said river where the eastern boundary of the consolidated chapelry of Cymmer and Porth crosses the said river, and then following the said boundary of the consolidated chapelry of Cymmer and Porth in a straight line in a south-south-westerly direction to the summit of Mynydd-y-Glyn at the point marked in the 6-inch Ordnance Map Sur. 1249.6 then following an imaginary straight line drawn almost due east from the last-named point to the southernmost point of the farm buildings of Landraw Farm, then passing in a north-easterly direction along the outside of the said farm buildings to the point where the figure '6' stands in B. M. 612.5 in the 6-inch Ordnance map, then following an imaginary straight line drawn almost due north from the last-named point through the figure 1 of B. M. 681.7 to the head of the small stream aforesaid in Gelliwion Wood, and following the course of the said stream in a north-north-easterly direction through the said wood to the first-named point in the centre of the River Rhondda due north of the point where the said small stream empties itself into the said river.

"The incumbent of the said parish of Llanwonno shall have exclusive cure of souls within the portion of the said parish of Llantrisant so proposed to be separated therefrom and annexed to the said parish of Llanwonno and which shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Llanwonno, and all the fees for churchings marriages and burials and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized or performed at the churches or churchyards of the parish of Llanwonno in respect of the inhabitants of the district so proposed to be annexed thereto shall belong to and continue to be received by the incumbent of Llantrisant for the time being.

"Nothing in the said scheme is to prejudice the rights of the present incumbent of Llantrisant legally entitled to the fees hereinbefore referred to except with the consent of such incumbent.

"CONSENTS.

"We Richard, Bishop of Llandaff, the patron in full right of our Bishopric of the said vicarage of Llantrisant, and the Reverend Joshua Pritchard Hughes, Clerk, M.A., the vicar of the same parish of Llantrisant, and as such the patron of the said perpetual curacy of Llanwonno and the Reverend Llewelyn Lloyd Davies, Clerk, M.A., the incumbent of Llanwonno do hereby respectively signify our consent to the foregoing scheme for separating the portion of the said parish of Llantrisant and annexing the same to the said parish of Llanwonno for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this nineteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and one.

"R. Llandaff.

"J. Pritchard Hughes.

"Llewelyn Lloyd Davies."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and one which said report is in the words and figures following:—
