

"As witness our hand this sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one.

"F. Cantuar."

Now therefore His Majesty in Council by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased to order as it is hereby ordered that the said scheme be carried into effect.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 15th day of June, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George Enfield situate in the Hertford High-road at Freezywater, Waltham Cross within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James Enfield in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield, and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Jesus Chapel Enfield in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield and of the said new parish of Jesus Chapel Enfield, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint George Enfield situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Reverend George Hewitt Hodson Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Enfield in the county and diocese aforesaid and as such Vicar or Incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield, and also of the vicarage of the new parish of Jesus Chapel Enfield aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint James Enfield, and of the new parish of Jesus Chapel Enfield aforesaid which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint George Enfield situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George Enfield.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George Enfield comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James Enfield and of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Jesus Chapel Enfield both in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said county of Middlesex and the diocese of London aforesaid from the county of Hertford and from the diocese of Saint Albans at a point in the middle of the Cambridge line of the Great Eastern Railway and extending thence westward along the said boundary to the point where it is crossed by the Cheshunt line of the same railway and extending thence southward along the middle of the said Cheshunt line of railway for a distance of sixty-three chains or thereabouts to a point at the southern end of Fortyhill Station at the centre of the bridge which carries the said line of railway over the stream known as Enfield Wash and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of fifty-nine chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Jesus Chapel Enfield from the new parish of Saint James Enfield aforesaid to a point opposite to the middle of the present southern end of the street called Chesterfield-road and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ordnance-road and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by the occupation road leading past the western side of the buildings and premises known as the Officers' Quarters to Catherine road and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-described occupation road for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Catherine-road aforesaid and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Malvern-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two and three-quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ashton-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its eastern end, at the western side of the Cambridge line of the Great Eastern Railway aforesaid and extending thence first eastward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the last-mentioned line of railway and extending thence northward along
