

Rank and name.	Particulars.	By whom mentioned.	Remarks.
Captain E. T. Logan ..	Commanded advanced guard of Colonel Shekleton's Column, and immediately on being fired at galloped at the kopje from which the shots came, driving off the Boers and enabling the gun and pompom to come up, whereby considerable loss was caused to the enemy.	General Babington's despatch on capture of Boer guns and convoy at Vaal Bank, 22nd and 23rd March, 1901.	Awarded D.S.O. by War Office telegram No. 7179, [dated 23rd April, 1901.
ROYAL ARTILLERY.
Captain F. H. C. Stanton ..	For the prompt manner in which he brought his pompom into action within 800 yards of enemy, causing them to fly in all directions.	Ditto.
THE BUFFS (East Kent Regiment).
Major E. C. J. Williams ..	Has shown consistent skill and dash in command of a detached column.
ROYAL SUSSEX REGIMENT.
Major L. E. Du Moulin ..	"I desire to bring to notice the very good work done by him in command of convoys, though almost constantly harassed by the enemy, no captures have been made from him, and his casualties have been very small—a proof that his men have been well trained and handled."	General Lyttelton's despatch on operations against De Wet in February, 1901.
4TH Bn. KING'S OWN ROYAL LANCASTER REGIMENT.
2nd Lieutenant F. E. Hunt.	With only 40 men against 200 Boers, made a gallant and highly creditable defence. Much credit is due to him.	General Forestier-Walker's despatch on Boer attack on Fish River Station, Cape Colony, 23rd February, 1901.	Awarded D.S.O. by War Office telegram No. 7197, dated 23rd April, 1901.
20TH Bn. IMPERIAL YEOMANRY.
Lieutenant J. W. Patterson	On 16th February, 16 miles west of Ladybrand, with 2 men encountered 15 Boers; killed 1, wounded 2, and captured 2. On 14th March, near Commissie Drift, engaged Boers single-handed and wounded and captured 2.	General Tucker, special despatch, 9th April, 1901: "I have made these selections from a number of names which have been submitted."	