16TH MIDDLESEX, LONDON IRISH VOLUNTEER RIFLE CORPS. (Attached to R.I. Rifles.) Lieutenant G. E. H. Sheen.	In defence of Thabanchu Nek, did good service in resisting De Wet and 1,200 men with only 47 men.	General Tucker, special despatch, 9th April, 1901: "I have made these selections from a number of names which have been submitted."
DRISCOLL'S SCOUTS. Lieutenant Breslin, ..	In command of a post near Kroonstad attacked by Boers on 27th February, held out from morning till midnight.	Ditto.
ROYAL WELSH FUSILIERS. Lieut.-Colonel Sir R. Colleton, Bart.	"I consider the difficult task of getting the convoy from Ventersdorp through without loss reflects great credit on his dispositions."	General Mildmay Willson's despatch, dated 2nd April, 1901.
ROYAL HORSE ARTILLERY ("P" Battery). Lieutenant C. F. Holford ..	At Botha's Drift, on Orange River, on 10th March, 1901, the leaders having been swept off their legs, and the gun stuck, he, with Gunner Keiler, got ropes out and, after 2 hours work, got the gun and horses out. I think there can be no doubt that Gunner Keiler and Lieutenant Holford, whose conduct was throughout admirable, and whose services I wish to bring to notice, saved the gun and horses.	General Forestier - Walker, forwarding despatch of Officer commanding battery, 9th April, 1901.
BRITISH SOUTH AFRICAN POLICE (Rhodesia). Captain C. H. Gibson ..	Lieut.-Colonel Flint desires to bring to notice the gallant conduct of Captain Gibson who commanded, and to whom every credit is due for the defeat inflicted on Maondera's Impis.	Colonel Manners - Wood, despatch on native attack on patrol from Fort Darwin, Rhodesia.
ARMY ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT. Lieutenant T. A. Robertson	A most capable Officer and well worthy of advancement, which would be for the good of the service.	General Macdonald, special despatch, 15th April, 1901.
