

is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel.

(2.) The warrant of the Consul, or of the Supreme Court (as the case may be), shall be sufficient authority to every constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and to the commander or master of any vessel of war, or other vessel (whether the constable, officer or other person, or the vessel or the commander or master thereof, is named therein or not), to receive, detain, take, and deliver up such person, according to the warrant.

(3.) The warrant shall be delivered to the constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the commander or master of any vessel in which the person to whom the warrant relates is embarked.

PART VIII.—REGULATIONS, COMMENCEMENT, &c.

88.—(1.) The Consul may, subject to the provisions of this Order, make such Regulations, to be called "King's Regulations," as to him seem fit, for the peace, order, and good government of British subjects resident in, or resorting to, Brunei.

(2.) The power aforesaid, extends to the making of Regulations for securing observance of the stipulations of Treaties between His Majesty and the Sultan of Brunei, and for enforcing any local law or customs, whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter, and for maintaining friendly relations between British subjects and native subjects and authorities, and for requiring returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into Brunei, by or on account of any British subject or in any British ship, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which, and the persons by whom, such Returns are to be made.

(3.) Regulations made under this Order shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by the Secretary of State, save that, in case of urgency declared in any such Regulations, the same shall take effect before that approval, and shall continue to have effect unless and until they are disapproved by the Secretary of State, and until notification of that disapproval has been received and published by the Consul.

89. Any Regulations made under this Order may, if the Consul thinks fit, impose penalties for offences against the same.

Penalties so imposed shall not exceed the following, namely: for any offence, imprisonment for three months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of five hundred dollars, or a fine of five hundred dollars without imprisonment; with or without a further fine, for a continuing offence, of fifty dollars for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.

In addition to or in lieu of penalties, such Regulations may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such Regulations, of any Treaty, or any native Law or Ordinance the observance of which is provided for by such Regulations.

90. All Regulations made under this Order, whether imposing penalties or not, shall be printed, and a printed copy thereof shall be affixed, and be at all times kept exhibited conspicuously in the public office of the Consulate at Brunei.

Printed copies of the Regulations shall be kept on sale at such reasonable price as the Consul from time to time directs.

91. The respective powers aforesaid extend to the making of Regulations for the governance, visitation, care, and superintendence of prisons in Brunei, and for the infliction of corporal or other punishment on prisoners committing offences against the rules or discipline of a prison; but the provisions of this Order respecting penalties, and respecting the printing, affixing, exhibiting, and sale of Regulations, and the mode of trial of charges of offences against Regulations, do not apply to Regulations respecting prisons and offences of prisoners.

92. The Judge may, with the approval of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, make Rules of Court and prescribe forms of procedure as to all civil and criminal proceedings and the fees to be taken therein.

The Supreme Court may make Rules of Court and prescribe forms of procedure as to appeals to the Supreme Court under this Order, and may fix the fees to be taken on such appeals.

All such Rules shall be transmitted forthwith to the Secretary of State for his approval, and so far as they relate to fees, for the approval of the Treasury, and until disallowance by him shall have full force and effect.

93. Not later than the thirty-first March in each year, the Consul shall transmit to the Secretary of State a report on the operation of this Order so far as relates to judicial affairs for the year ending the thirty-first December then last, showing the number and nature of the proceedings, criminal and civil, taken in the Court, and the result thereof, and the number and amount of fees received, and such other information, and being in such form, as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

94. This Order shall commence and take effect as follows:—

As to the appointment of any officers, the issue of any instructions, proclamations, or notifications, immediately from and after the passing of this Order;

As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first publicly exhibited at Brunei.

A. W. FitzRog.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 24th day of July, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
 Lord President.
 Marquess of Cholmondeley.
 Viscount Cromer.
 Lord Chesham.
 Lord James of Hereford.
 Lord Pauncefoot.
 Lord Milner.
 Mr. Cecil Rhodes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the exercise of the power and jurisdiction vested by Treaty in His Majesty the King in and over the parts of China within the limits of this Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," and otherwise in him vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—
