

be supplied by the Council, a true statement of the particulars therein required to be specified.

Register of Licences.

3. The Council shall cause a register to be kept of all licences granted under these Bye-laws, and the suspension or revocation of any licence shall be noted in such register.

Penalty for False Statement.

4. A person who, not being entered in the Council's register as a licensed keeper, shall himself or by means of any agent or servant hold himself out as keeping or purporting to keep a licensed house, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and to a further penalty of £10 for every day during which he shall continue to do so after conviction for so doing.

Inspection and Approval before Licensing.

5. A licence shall not be granted in respect of a house or part of a house until it has been inspected and approved as fit for the purpose of a licensed house by the Medical Officer of Health, or by an Assistant Medical Officer of Health of the county, and any person who applies for a licence shall produce to the Council evidence to its satisfaction of his fitness to be licensed.

Licences not to be Transferred or Lent.

6. A licensed keeper shall not transfer or lend a licence to any other person.

Licence may be Conditional.

7. A licence shall be subject to such conditions specified therein or endorsed thereon, and not being inconsistent with the Laws, Bye-laws, or Regulations for the time being in force in the county, as the Council sees fit, and a licensed keeper, or any person employed in a licensed house, shall not commit a breach of, or fail to observe, such conditions.

Licence to be Annual.

8. A licence shall continue in force (subject to suspension or revocation as in these Bye-laws provided) for one year from 1st January. The Council may at its discretion refuse to renew any licence.

Public-houses or Beer-houses not to be Licensed.

9. A house or part of a house which is in connection with any public-house or beer-house shall not be licensed as a seamen's lodging-house.

Certain Persons not to be Licensed.

10. A licence shall not be granted to a person who holds a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or who is engaged or interested in the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop-dealer; nor shall a licence be granted in respect of any house or part of a house where intoxicating liquor is sold, nor in respect of any house or part of a house occupied or used for the purpose of the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop-dealer; nor shall any licensed keeper sell or be engaged or interested in the sale of intoxicating liquor, nor be engaged or interested in the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop-dealer.

Notice to be Affixed to Licensed House.

11. A licensed keeper shall affix and keep undefaced and legible a notice with the words "Licensed Seamen's Lodging-house" in the most conspicuous place on the outside of the main entrance from any street to the licensed house, and also the full name and address of the licensed keeper.

Access to Seamen's Lodging-house and to Register of Lodgers.

12. A keeper and any person employed in a house shall at all times, by day or night, when required by an officer appointed by the Council for the inspection of seamen's lodging-houses, or by an officer of the Board of Trade, or of the police, give him or them or any of them free access to all parts of such house, and to the register of seamen lodgers hereinafter referred to.

Number of Lodgers.

13. A keeper shall not at any time receive, cause, or suffer to be received into a house, or permit to sleep in any room therein, any greater number of lodgers than shall be from time to time allowed by the certificate of the Clerk of the Council. Such certificate shall state the total number of lodgers allowed to sleep in each room of such house, as well as the total number such house may receive, and shall be supplied by the Council to the keeper; and he shall produce such certificate whenever required by any officer appointed by the Council for the inspection of seamen's lodging-houses.

14. A keeper shall fix and keep fixed in a conspicuous place in each room a ticket signed by the Clerk of the Council, stating the number of lodgers allowed to sleep in such room.

15. A keeper and any person employed in a house shall not at any time conceal, deface, alter, or obliterate, or permit, or suffer to be concealed, defaced, altered, or obliterated, any such letters or figures.

16. Notwithstanding that the maximum number of lodgers to be received in a house or in any room therein may not have been fixed by the Council as hereinbefore provided, a keeper shall not cause or suffer a greater number of persons than will admit of the provision of 400 cubic feet of free air space for each person to occupy at one time as a sleeping apartment a room which is used for that purpose.

17. Whenever the Council shall consider it necessary to reduce the number of lodgers to be received in any room in a house, the keeper shall, upon receiving notice in writing to that effect, under the hand of the Clerk of the Council, cease to permit such room to be occupied by any greater number of lodgers than that specified in such notice.

Sleeping Apartments.

18. A keeper shall not at any time cause or suffer any room which may be appointed for use as a kitchen, scullery, or sitting room, or any underground room which does not comply with the provisions of sub-section 1 of section 96 of the Public Health Act (London), 1891, to be used as a sleeping apartment.

Ventilation.

19. A keeper shall cause all such means of ventilation as may be provided in or in connection with any room or passage in a house, and in, or in connection with, any water-closet belonging to a house to be maintained at all times in good order.

20. A keeper shall cause the windows of every room and of the passages and water-closets in a house to be kept fully open for such time on each day as may be necessary for the purposes of ventilation, and shall cause the windows of every room which may be appointed for use and occupation as a sleeping apartment to be kept fully open from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. in winter and 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. in summer.

Provided that such keeper shall not be required in pursuance of this Bye-law to cause any window in any room to be opened or to be kept open at any time when the state of the weather is such as to render it necessary that the window shall be closed or when any bed in such room may be occupied by any lodger in consequence of sickness or of other sufficient cause.

Cleansing.

21. A keeper shall, in the first week in the month of April and, if required in writing by the
