

The prices to be charged for, and the terms and conditions of such supply.

The execution of any works for the supply or use of electric energy, or of power within the aforesaid limits, or the exercise of any of the powers of the Company by such local authority, company, trustees, body, or person, or the exercise by the Company of any powers of such authority, company, trustees, body, or person, on their behalf.

The transfer to the Company by any local authority, company, body, or person, who may be authorised to supply electricity, whether within or beyond the area of supply of the Company as defined as aforesaid of their undertaking, powers, rights, privileges, liabilities, and obligations.

And the supply by such local authority, company, trustees, body, or person, of water to the Company for condensing and other purposes of their undertaking.

And to confer all necessary powers upon the Company, and any such local authority, company, trustees, body, or person, to enable them to carry out such agreement, and to sanction and confirm any such agreement, and to enable the Company to exercise any powers agreed to be transferred to them as aforesaid.

To empower the Company on the one hand, and the Severn Commissioners on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect agreements with respect to the laying down, or erecting under or over the River Severn, and the banks, foreshore, and bed thereof, of any electric lines or works, and to authorise the Company to lay down or erect such electric lines and works in accordance with the terms of any such agreement, and generally to confer upon the Company and the said Commissioners all necessary powers for carrying any agreement which may be made as aforesaid into effect, and, if thought fit, to sanction and confirm any such agreement.

To empower the Company to raise capital (ordinary or preferential), and by borrowing money, and to pay interest out of capital on any shares or stock of the Company, and to subscribe for, purchase, and hold shares or stock of any Company, firm, or person taking, or agreeing to take, a supply of electrical energy from the Company, or establishing factories or works within the area of supply, and to lend money on mortgage or bond, or otherwise, to any such company, firm, or person, and to apply the capital of the Company for all or any of the purposes aforesaid or other the purposes of the Bill.

To authorise the Commissioners of Woods to sell or grant to the Company any lands vested in them, or under their control and management, which may be required for the purposes of the Bill, or any easements or rights in, over, under, or affecting any such lands, and to extend in regard to such lands the powers of leasing conferred by the Act of 10 George IV., cap. 50, and any Act or Acts amending the same.

To incorporate with the Bill, with or without modification, the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845, and any Acts amending the same and the Lands Clauses Acts, and to confer upon and extend and apply to the Company and to the proposed undertaking and works, whether with or without exception or variation, all or such of the provisions of the Electric Lighting Acts 1882 and 1888, and the Acts incorporated therewith, and of the Schedule to the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act 1899, as may be thought expedient or applicable, and to restrict in their application to the Company all or any of the provisions of such Acts, or to limit the area within which the same shall be applicable, and specially, but not exclusively, to exempt the Company wholly or partly from or to apply to the Company in a modified form the provisions of the said Act of 1888 with respect to the purchase of the undertaking by the local authority, and the provisions of the Schedule to the said Act of 1899, with respect to—the Undertakers—to the area of supply—to security and accounts—compulsory works—supply—price—electric inspectors—testing—inspection—revocation of powers—and nuisance, and the provisions of the said Act of 1882 and the said Schedule with respect to the breaking up of railways or tramways, and roads over bridges and overhead wires, and to vary the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the subscription of capital prior to the exercise of compulsory powers.

To vary and extinguish all or any rights or privileges inconsistent with, or which would or might interfere with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, extend or amend the provisions of the Severn Navigation Act 1842, and any other Act or Acts relating to or affecting the Severn Commissioners or the River Severn.

And notice is hereby also given, that plans showing the lands which may be taken or used compulsorily under the powers of the Bill, with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester at his office at Gloucester, and that, on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes or townships aforesaid in which any lands which may be taken or used compulsorily are situate, together with a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Parish Council of each such parish or township at his office, or, if he has no office, at his residence, or, if there is no such Clerk, with the Chairman of such Council at his residence.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1901.
