"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Windmill Hill, in the parish of Bedminster in the suburbs of the city of Bristol and in the diocese of Bristol.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Windmill Hill as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Forrest Bishop of the said diocese of Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bedminster which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Windmill Hill as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Windmill Hill.'

"And with the like consent of the said George Forrest Bishop of the said diocese of Bristol (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Windmill Hill as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Alfred Henry Forster Burder Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Bedminster shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate at Windmill Hill as aforesaid shall be paid over by the Minister thereof to the said Alfred Henry Forster Burder and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Bedminster in the suburbs of the city of Bristol and in the diocese of Bristol which is bounded upon part of the north-west by the new parish of Saint Luke, Bedminster, upon the north-east and upon part of the south-east by the new parish of the Holy Nativity Knowle both in the suburbs of the said city of Bristol and in the said diocese of Bristol, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the south-east, upon the south upon the south-west and upon the remaining part of the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Nativity Knowle from the said parish of Bedminster at the junction of Redcatch-lane with Saint John's-lane and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of sixty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Albert-road beneath the centre of the bridge which carries the main line of the Great Western Railway over the said junction of roads and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Bedminster from the new parish of Saint Luke Bedminster aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bristol.
