Board of Trade (Fisheries and Harbour Department), London, April 26, 1902.

H. 6784.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following Annexes to the new Quarantine Rules for the Russian Black Sea Coast, now come into force, from His Majesty's Representative at St. Petersburg:—

ANNEXE I to Instructions to Marine Medico-Observation Stations and Naval Quarantine establishments of the Black Sea.

Rules for sanitary supervision over Turkish Feluccas and other foreign vessels arriving on the coast of the Black Sea at points where Quarantine and Customs establishments do not exist.

Confirmed by the Assistant Minister of the Interior on the 30th July, 1894, and forwarded with circular of the Medical Department of the 1st August, 1894.

No. 5514.

1. In those cases in which a foreign vessel, in consequence of storm, injury, or any other extraordinary circumstances, shall arrive at a place where there are neither quarantine doctors nor customs establishments, the coast guard, while allowing the landing of the crew and passengers only in the case of extreme necessity, establishes strict supervision over them, not allowing them to communicate with other people, and at once gives information to the quarantine establishment, or should none such be near, to the local police authorities, who in case of need shall request the attendance of the nearest government or rural doctor for the adoption of all necessary measures in conformity with the rules of the 26th April, 1893, imperially confirmed, with a view to taking precautions against the introduction of epidemic diseases along the maritime boundaries of the Empire. The coastguard takes similar action in the event of the secret landing of a sick person, as also in the case of death of such a sick person.

2. The members of the district or rural police shall immediately notify to the coastguard the arrival on the coast of a foreign vessel, as also the landing by any vessel of a sick or dead man, and before the arrival of the coastguard they shall institute strict supervision and not allow the crew to land, with the exception of cases in which a vessel may be in danger, and at the same time they shall speedily report to the nearest government or rural doctor, so that necessary measures may be adopted.

3. In those cases in which a Turkish felucca or other foreign vessel has been granted the right of putting in to a place where customs and quarantine establishments do not exist, the coastguard allows the communication of such vessels with the shore only when the vessels are provided with a bill of health by one of the quarantine customs establishments.

ANNEXE II to Instructions to Marine Medico-Observation Stations and Naval Quarantine Establishments of the Black Sea.

Form of Enquiry Paper of Naval Quarantine Establishment.

Confirmed by the Assistant Minister of the Interior on the 17th January, 1894.

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board: Poor Law Conferences: Altering Regulations:—

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Poor Law Unions in England and Wales for the time being;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS We, the Local Government Board, by a General Order dated the seventeenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, issued under Section 2 of the Poor Law Conferences Act, 1883, empowered the Guardians of the Poor of the several Poor Law Unions in England and Wales to pay the reasonable expenses incurred in attending any Conference of Guardians held for the purpose of discussing any matter connected with the duties which devolve on them, and in purchasing reports of the proceedings of any such Conference, subject to the regulations set forth in such General Order;

And whereas it was provided by Regulation (3) of the said General Order that the maximum number of Guardians authorized to attend any Conference should be three, and that in the case of the Central Conference held in London only one Guardian should be authorized to attend from any Union at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place of meeting;

And whereas by another General Order, dated the second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, We directed that the following Regulation should be substituted for the said Regulation (3) of the General Order firstly herein-before mentioned; namely,—

“The maximum number of Guardians authorized to attend any Conference shall be three, and in the case of the Central Conference held in London two Guardians only shall be authorized to attend from any Union which is situate at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place of meeting.”

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made in the matter as hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby rescind the said General Order, dated the second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and Order and Direct that the said General Order dated the seventeenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, shall have effect as if the following Regulation were substituted therein for Regulation (3); that is to say,—

“(3.) The maximum number of Guardians authorized to attend any Conference shall be three, and in the case of the Central Conference held in London, two Guardians only shall be authorized to attend.”

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and two.

Walter H. Long,
President.
S. B. Provis, Secretary.

COUNTY OF GLOUCESTER.

Bye-laws made by the County Council of the Administrative County of Gloucester, under the Locomotives Act, 1898.

NOTICE is hereby given, that after the expiration of one calendar month from the 30th day of April, 1902, application will be made to the Local Government Board for the confirmation of Bye-laws under the Locomotives Act, 1898, made and adopted by the Gloucestershire County Council; and notice is also hereby given, that a copy of such Bye-laws will be kept at the office of the Clerk of the said County Council, at Gloucester, and be open to the inspection of the ratepayers of the said county, without fee or reward, on any week day other than Thursday, between the hours of 10 A.M. and 5 P.M., and on Thursday, between the hours of 10 A.M. and 1 P.M., during the period of one calendar month from the said 30th day of April, 1902; and notice is also hereby given, that a copy thereof, at a charge of 6d. for every 100 words, will be furnished, by the Clerk of the said County Council, to any applicant.

Dated this 22nd day of April, 1902.

EDWARD T. GARDOM,
Clerk of the Gloucestershire County Council,
Shire Hall, Gloucester.

[Extract from the Edinburgh Gazette of April 25, 1902.]
A MEETING of the COLD STORAGE AND ICE ASSOCIATION will be held at the Society of Arts, John-street, Adelphi, London, W.C., on 9th May, at 2.30 p.m.; and at 4.30, or as soon after as convenient, the Meeting will be resolved into a Public Meeting to consider, and, if thought fit, pass the following resolution:—

Whereas doubts have arisen whether the Cold Storage and Refrigerating Industries generally throughout the United Kingdom have the right to detain goods delivered to them, not only until payment be made for the work performed upon the particular goods cold stored, but also for work of the same kind performed upon goods already delivered out of the possession of the Members of the Industry.

Now we, the Members of the Cold Storage and Ice Association, and also of the Refrigerating Industry generally, in Public Meeting assembled, hereby give notice that we will never hereafter take into our possession any goods for the purposes of Cold Storage or Refrigerating unless under the express condition precedent that the goods so delivered to us for the purpose aforesaid shall not only be subject to the debt due for work performed upon such goods, but also for the general balance due from the persons so employing us for work of the same kind performed upon goods belonging to such persons which we have already delivered out of our possession. And we hereby request all persons meaning or intending to employ us to take notice of this our resolution and intention from henceforward to establish the trade custom of general lien in connection with the Cold Storage and Refrigerating Industry, Trade, or Business.

And further, take notice that if the foregoing resolution be passed, a further resolution will be proposed, and, if thought fit, passed, that the Executive Council of the Cold Storage and Ice Association (with power to add to its number) do constitute itself a representative Committee to do all acts and things which may be requisite and necessary for the purpose of carrying the above resolution into effect, and also to enter into a form of Agreement inter se for such purpose and for establishing the custom of general lien in connection with the Cold Storage and Refrigerating Industry.

Members of the trade and the public who may be interested in the resolution are hereby invited to attend the Meeting convened for the above purpose at the time and place above stated.

Signed by order of the Executive Council,
R. M. LEONARD, Hon. Secretary.
