

Corps, rank and name.	Particulars.	Remarks.
NORTH STAFFORDSHIRE REGIMENT.
Captain F. E. Johnston. ..
ROYAL WARWICKSHIRE REGIMENT.
Captain L. W. Johnson. ..	For good service in same action.
CIVIL SURGEON.
A. L. Hoops	In same action four times wounded, and when no longer able to move about, refused to be taken to the rear, and remained in the firing line, giving directions for the treatment of other wounded men.
7TH HUSSARS.
Major J. Vaughan
2ND DRAGOON GUARDS.
Captain R. L. Mullens	For valuable work in action at Holspruit, 1st April, 1902.
ROYAL ARMY MEDICAL CORPS.
Lieutenant T. F. Ritchie, M.B. . .
3RD HUSSARS.
2nd Lieutenant M. Burge	For gallantry in exposing himself in endeavour to locate enemy at Geluk on 13th April, 1902, and for his recovery of guns from deep water in Liebenberg Vlei in March, 1902.
1ST BN. ROYAL MUNSTER FUSILIERS.
2nd Lieutenant H. E. R. R. Braine	For good leading in capture of a laager in Orange River Colony, on 20th April, 1902.
IMPERIAL LIGHT HORSE.
Lieutenant B. Nicholson	With 3 men captured 18 Boers on 15th April, 1902, at Yeerspruit, after a long chase.
NATIONAL SCOUTS.
General Andries Cronje. . . .	In pursuit of enemy's guns at Rooiyal on 11th April, outstripped his men, and captured them single-handed. Afterwards pursued and captured 3 men single-handed.
Commandant Pickard	For good service at Brakspruit on 11th April, 1902.
2ND BN. MIDDLESEX REGIMENT.
Major R. de H. Burton. . . .	For skilful expedition on 6th May by which he captured F. C. Meintjes and 4 others.
11TH BN. IMPERIAL YEOMANRY.
Lieutenant J. E. Perks	For special good service on same occasion.	