To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you heartily on My own behalf and on behalf of the Queen for your cordial expression of the good wishes of My loyal subjects, inhabitants of the Metropolitan Boroughs North of the Thames, whom you represent, and for your congratulations on Our Coronation, on the restoration of peace in South Africa, and on My recovery, by God's mercy, from a dangerous illness.

"Through you I acknowledge the welcome greetings of this vast concourse of Londoners and of visitors to Our capital. I pray that Almighty God may vouchsafe peace, contentment, and prosperity to My people, and may bless and guide you who are entrusted with the management of the municipal affairs of so large a portion of the Metropolis."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of Your City of London in Common Council assembled, approach Your presence with feelings of unmingled joy and thankfulness humbly to offer to Your Majesties our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon the happy recovery of Your Majesty the King from the dangerous illness which so suddenly fell upon You, and to express our sense of Your Majesties' gracious condescension in visiting to-day Your ancient and loyal City of London.

We, together with all Your Majesties' loyal subjects, expressed our heartfelt sympathy with Your Majesties and your Royal House, and reverently joined in the prayers which were offered up to Almighty God for Your Majesty's speedy recovery and restoration to health, and desire now to express our deep thankfulness that the prayers of Your people have been heard and answered.

We would also offer to Your Majesties our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the Coronation of your Majesties the King and Queen—performed with so much solemnity in the Abbey Church of Westminster in accordance with the ancient custom of these realms, and the deep signification of which was nowhere more fully realized than in Your loyal city of London.

With renewed assurances of our dutiful loyalty to Your Majesties and Your Royal House, we humbly pray that every happiness may in the future attend Your Majesties, and that You may be long spared to reign over a happy, prosperous, and contented people.

(Signed by order of the Court)

James Bell, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"Your warm testimonies of loyalty and affection, and the cordial welcome given to Us by you on behalf of Our ancient and loyal City of London, are profoundly gratifying to Myself and to the Queen.

"I am deeply touched by your congratulations on Our Coronation, and on My restoration to health, which Heaven has been pleased to grant in answer to the prayers of My people.

"I join with you in praying that prosperity and contentment may reign henceforth throughout My Empire."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayors, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Boroughs of Bermondsey, Camberwell, Deptford, Greenwich, Lambeth, Lewisham, Southwark, Wandsworth, and Woolwich.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, your Majesties' most loyal and dutiful subjects, humbly approach Your Majesties with the expression of our heartfelt congratulation upon the occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation.

The Empire over which Your Majesties reign is unique alike in its vast extent and in the preponderating influence it exercises over the nations
