

between the Commission and any of the Dock Companies, or the holders of any or any class of mortgage securities, or in carrying out the provisions of the intended Act, and to prevent any allowance in respect of any compulsory sale under the intended Act, or the consideration of any enhancement or depreciation of the market value of any shares or stock of any of the Dock Companies, or of any mortgage securities which in the opinion of the arbitrators is due to the passing or anticipation of the passing of the intended Act, or the consideration or taking into account of any other matter which may be specified in the intended Act; to authorize allowance to be made in respect of any costs of re-investment of the sums or consideration to which a shareholder or stockholder of any of the Dock Companies or the holder of any mortgage securities may become entitled, or in respect of any other costs which any shareholder, stockholder or holder of mortgage securities may incur in consequence of the intended Act; to confer on the arbitrator or arbitrators such powers as may be necessary or desirable to enable them to deal with and settle all questions arising under the intended Act and thereby referred to their arbitration; and to provide that the awards, orders and other determinations of the arbitrator or arbitrators shall be binding and conclusive and shall not be removed, set aside, reviewed or questioned to or by any Court, and to provide for the payment of the costs of the arbitration and the procedure before the arbitrator or arbitrators, and all other matters which may be necessary or expedient to enable the arbitrator or arbitrators to effect a final and equitable settlement of the matters referred to his or their arbitration.

To provide for the discharge by the Dock Companies of such of their debts, liabilities and obligations as may not be transferred to the Commission; to continue the existing security or provide substituted security for mortgage securities of the Dock Companies transferred to the Commission, and to make such other provision with respect to any of the matters aforesaid, and the payment, discharge, extinction or continuance of any debt, liability or obligation of any of the Dock Companies as may be specified in the intended Act.

To enable or require the Dock Companies or any person or class of persons entitled to any payment by the Commission (including trustees or persons under disability) to accept in lieu of the whole or any part of any cash or money payment, stock (in this Notice referred to as "Port Stock"), or other stock or securities to be created under the intended Act, to such an amount and upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the intended Act.

To enable the Commission to create and issue Port Stock and to borrow and reborrow money on mortgage or in such other manner and for such purposes as the intended Act may define; to fix the mode and period of repayment of moneys so borrowed, and to provide for the repayment and extinction of any mortgage security transferred to the Commission, and provide for the creation of one or more sinking or redemption funds.

To provide for the establishment of a fund to be called the Port Fund, and that all receipts of the Commission shall be carried to that fund and all payments by the Commission shall be made out of that fund.

To provide that Port Stock shall be included in the securities in which a trustee may invest under the powers of the Trustee Act, 1893.

To provide for the audit of the accounts of the Commission.

To authorize or require the London County Council and the corporation of the city of London, either jointly or severally or jointly and severally to guarantee the payment of interest on such an amount of Port Stock as may be created and issued by the Commission.

To provide for the application, apportionment, and distribution of any moneys or other consideration received by the Dock Companies from the Commission: for the settlement of any questions and disputes which may arise in the course of such application, apportionment, and distribution; for the winding up and dissolution of the Dock Companies; for the repeal, alteration, or application to the Commission of all or some of the provisions of any statute, order, or charter relating to any of the Dock Companies.

To provide for the due maintenance and carrying on of the dock undertakings until and after the appointed day.

To provide for the dissolution of the Dock Companies and the winding up of their affairs.

To enable the Commission or any officers or other person appointed by them to enter upon and inspect the lands, works, and property of the Dock Companies; to examine the books, accounts, and documents of the Dock Companies, and to take extracts therefrom and make copies thereof; to provide for the conduct and carrying on by the Dock Companies of their undertakings and business up to the appointed day or for such period after the appointed day as may be necessary or desirable, and for the limitation or regulation of the conduct of the business of the Dock Companies during the period aforesaid.

To make provision for the transfer to the Commission of the officers and servants of the Dock Companies, and certain officers and servants of the Trinity House, the Conservators, or the Watermen's Company, and for compensation to any such officers and servants, or to other persons who may suffer pecuniary loss in consequence of the passing of the intended Act.

To determine to what extent and under what conditions any pilots licensed by the Trinity House before the appointed day are to continue to act under the Commission.

To provide for the transfer of books, deeds, and documents, the payment of debts, the continuance of actions, the adoption or otherwise of contracts and agreements of the Dock Companies and other general and incidental matters.

To enable or require the Commission within a period to be prescribed by the intended Act to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any warehouses or other buildings, or any lands connected with the dock undertakings, or any of them.

To authorize or require the London County Council and the Corporation of the City of London or either of them, to provide and raise such a sum as may be necessary to meet the expenses incurred by the Commission in dredging or otherwise deepening and improving the channels and waterways of the River Thames within the Port of London.

To enable the Commission to make and enforce bye-laws, rules, regulations, and scales of charges, dues, and tolls in relation to all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to