Reme, March 22.

N Monday next will be, held another Confistory, in which the Pope intends, as 'ris said, to Preconife 4 French Bishops more; The Zealots; who are very much distaisted at the Advances he has already made in this Butiness, without receiving any Satisfaction from the Court of France, about the 4 Propositions, and the matter of the most proper Method for them to declare publishly their dillike of this Proceeding: Some of them are is making a Solemn Protestation, and others for going on of the Consistory in a Body when this matter is next propold; What Resolution they will come to we may expect to see in sew days. The Pope has Granted a Dispulsion for the Marriage of the Duke of Mudena with the Princess of Parma. The Congregation of Health have again forbid all Commerce and Correspondence with the kingdom of Naples, upon advice, that two Persons have lately died of the Plague at Polignano, after that place had ben for five Months free from all Insection. The Cardinal Chief was taken very ill the last Week, and though he is somewhat better, yet his Recovery is still much doubted. The Prince Royal of Denmark is come hither privately with a Train of about 40 Persons show are quartered in the Plague. rudy with a Train of about 40 Persons from Venice.

Twin, March 22. The Germans who are quartered in lidmont, having notice that the Governor of Rignerel ad filled the Town Ditch with a vast quantity of Forage, and other Provision for the Campagne, resolved to attempt the destroying it; and in order thereunto about 4 days 3802 considerable Party marched in the Night till they fine near the place, and then detached a small number of their best Men, who were on with sich Secretic and Suc goa'ordiderable Party marched in the Night till they the near the place, and then detached a small number of the hest hen, who went on with such Secresse and Such that they burnt it all, and returned without any loss; which will doubtless prove a great Damage and Disaposiment to the Enemy. The Governor of the Milaneze shortly expected at this Court; He has assured our Duke that he will bring 22000 men to his Assistance, And yeardy arrived here from Milan 150 Wagons with Amminion, which is to be reserved for their Use. In the near time the Preparations here are carried on with extraordinary Diligence, a great number of Bornbs and Carrassis is providing, and the discourse continues of 2 design to Besige Pigurol. The Marquis de Bagnasque, who have commanded in Montmelian, and during that Siege, a well as in other Occasions, gave great Proofs of his stray and Fidelity to the Duke his Master, is made Gernal of the Artillery in the Room of the Count de Piolique, who is removed to the place of Great Master of in Royal Higness's Houshold; And the Order of the Marquis de Parella, Lieutenant General of the Dukes Forces, and to the said Marquis de Rayalque. Vienna, March 30. This Courf being informed that there is still in Great Waradin a Gurison of 600 Men, and that they are not in so great a want of Provinces as the Deferters have all along reported, has at last resolved to change the Blockade into another formal Siege; To which end the Imperial Regiments quarrened in Transsidyania, have alreacy Orders to march than way, and Prince Lours of Baden intends to set out from hence about the beginning of May, to Command there in Person. In the mean time the Turks continue to draw together about Ginla, and their design scenes to be to throw 3 for 400 Janisaries with some Provisions into Great Waradin, but such care is taken on our side to secure the Passes, that we do not doubt but to prevent its. We hear likewise that no or 12000 Turks are assembled about Belgrade; and that they were going to make a Bridge over the Save, in order to make incursious into Sclavonia. According to the Advices from Turkey the Ottoman Army will be very numerous this Campagne, but the greatest part of it composed of new miled Trops, without Dissipline or Experience; and they expect a Reinsforcement of 40000 Tarrars; They prepare also a large Train of Artillery, and great quantities of Fireworks, wherein they are assisted by divers French Ingeniers.
