, Repairing, and

and Learned

The London Gazette.

Oubliffed by Authority.

From Monday April 4. to Thursday April 7. 1692

Reme, March 22.

N Monday next will be, held another Confistory, in which the Pope intends, as 'ris said, to Preconife 4 French Bishops more; The Zealots; who are very much distaisted at the Advances he has already made in this Butiness, without receiving any Satisfaction from the Court of France, about the 4 Propositions, and the matter of the most proper Method for them to declare publishly their dillike of this Proceeding: Some of them are is making a Solemn Protestation, and others for going on of the Consistory in a Body when this matter is next propold; What Resolution they will come to we may expect to see in sew days. The Pope has Granted a Dispulsion for the Marriage of the Duke of Mudena with the Princess of Parma. The Congregation of Health have again forbid all Commerce and Correspondence with the kingdom of Naples, upon advice, that two Persons have lately died of the Plague at Polignano, after that place had ben for five Months free from all Insection. The Cardinal Chief was taken very ill the last Week, and though he is somewhat better, yet his Recovery is still much doubted. The Prince Royal of Denmark is come hither privately with a Train of about 40 Persons show are quartered in the Plague. rudy with a Train of about 40 Persons from Venice.

Twin, March 22. The Germans who are quartered in lidmont, having notice that the Governor of Rignerel ad filled the Town Ditch with a vast quantity of Forage, and other Provision for the Campagne, resolved to attempt the destroying it; and in order thereunto about 4 days 3802 considerable Party marched in the Night till they fine near the place, and then detached a small number of their best Men, who were on with sich Secretic and Suc goa'ordiderable Party marched in the Night till they the near the place, and then detached a small number of the hest hen, who went on with such Secresse and Such that they burnt it all, and returned without any loss; which will doubtless prove a great Damage and Disaposiment to the Enemy. The Governor of the Milaneze shortly expected at this Court; He has assured our Duke that he will bring 22000 men to his Assistance; And yeardy arrived here from Milan 150 Wagons with Amminion, which is to be reserved for their Use. In the near time the Preparations here are carried on with extraordinary Diligence, a great number of Bornbs and Carrassis is providing, and the discourse continues of 2 design to Besige Pigurol. The Marquis de Bagnasque, who have commanded in Montmelian, and during that Siege, a well as in other Occasions, gave great Proofs of his streng and Fidelity to the Duke his Master, is made Gernal of the Artillery in the Room of the Count de Piolique, who is removed to the place of Great Master of in Royal Higness's Houshold; And the Order of the Marquis de Parella, Lieutenant General of the Dukes Forces, and to the said Marquis de Rayalque. We hear that Monsieur Carinat is come to salew him.

1881. March 26. General Carassa is now on his De-through the country of sure of this months of this months. The Difference of Script. The Difference of this months. The Script of Script. The Difference of this months. The Sieur de Sapesville, and the Script.

rences with the Great Duke of Tuscany about Contributions, are like to be amicably Accommodated.

Venice, March 28. The Count de Rabenae is still here and does not now inrend to leave this place till after the Easter Holidays. The Advices from Turkey continue to fay, That the Turks make great preparations for the next Campagne in Hungary.

Easter Holidays. The Advices from Turkey continue to fay, That the Turks make great preparations for the next Campagne in Hungary.

Vienna, March 30. This Courf being informed that there is still in Great Waradin a Gurison of 600 Men, and that they are not in so great a want of Provinces as the Deferters have all along reported, has at last resolved to change the Blockade into another formal Siege; To which end the Imperial Regiments quarrened in Transsidyania, have alreacy Orders to march than way, and Prince Lours of Baden intends to set out from hence about the beginning of May, to Command there in Person. In the mean time the Turks continue to draw together about Ginla, and their design scenes to be to throw 3 for 400 Janisaries with some Provisions into Great Waradin, but such care is taken on our side to secure the Passes, that we do not doubt but to prevent its. We hear likewise that no or 12000 Turks are assembled about Belgrade; and that they were going to make a Bridge over the Save, in order to make incursious into Sclavonia. According to the Advices from Turkey the Ottoman Army will be very numerous this Campagne, but the greatest part of it composed of new miled Trops, without Dissipline or Experience; and they expect a Reinsforcement of 40000 Tarrars; They prepare also a large Train of Artillery, and great quantities of Fireworks, wherein they are assisted by divers French Ingeniers.

Colonne, April 8. The Elector of Colonne being Indif-

Ingeniers.

Cologne, April 8. The Elector of Cologne being Indifpoled with an Ague, has changed his Refolution of going to Arensberg in Wellphalia, and has fent the Count Counglick to affilt on his part at the meeting of the States of Saulandt. His Electoral Highnels has given out Commillions for raiking a Regiment of Dragoons; and intends to buy one of Foos of the Bilhop of Hildelpham, with which he will have 6 Regiments in his Service, viz. 4 of Foot, one of Horfe, and one of Dragoons. Since the departure of General Caprara towards Vienna, the Margrave of Bareith Commands the Imperial Forces on the Upper Rhine; and it's faid that those of Suabia and Francous are likewise to act under his Orders. At Alltenbourg on the Main they are preparing Boats to bring down two Regiments of Bavarian Horse to Bon or Cologne; from whence they are to march to Flanders.

Bavarian Horse to Bon or Cologne; from whence they are to march to Flanders.

Hamburg; April 8. The 4000 Men which the Bishop of Munster does furnish for the Emperors Assistance in Hungary, will begin their march to morrow, by the way of Donavert. The King of Denmark sends thinher 2200, to wit, 1200 Foot, one Regiment of Horse, and one of Dragoons, under the Command of Major General Rantzaw; who are to set out about the middle of this Month, and to take their march through Holsein, Mecklenburg, the Mark of Brandenburg and Stefia. The Princes of Lunenburg give 6000 Men for the same Service; and they will begin their march about the first of May, and continue it through the Country of Twinge, and Bohemia. And the Elector of Brandenburg has granted 4000 Men to Recruit his Forces that are adready in that Service.

re ability of the