*India Office,
15th May, 1903.*

The following extract from a report from Major-General O'Moore Creagh, V.C., C.B., commanding the Force in China, dated Tientsin, 24th September, 1902, is published as a Despatch:—

Para. 4. In this connection I would specially bring to your Lordship's notice the operations of a small detachment of the 4th Punjab Infantry, under Lieutenant Hall (Lieutenant P. B. Hall, Indian Army), 34th Punjab Pioneers, on December 17, 1901, in which he succeeded in accounting for a band of fifteen brigands, capturing four and only allowing one to escape. The fight lasted nearly twelve hours, the brigands being strongly posted in buildings and having unlimited rifles, revolvers, and ammunition, and having to be burnt out. This Lieutenant Hall succeeded in effecting without having a single casualty in his detachment, and was thanked by a special "Ordre du jour" of the Provisional Government (copy attached).
