

of the Argentine Republic or from Uruguay may be landed at the Deptford Foreign Animals Wharf in accordance with the provisions of this Order and not otherwise.

2. An Inspector of the Board of Agriculture shall be permitted to examine the animals on board the said vessel at such time or times as he may require, and the animals shall not be landed until they have been so examined.

3. If there is, or during the voyage has been, any animal on board the said vessel affected with foot-and-mouth disease, every person before landing therefrom in Great Britain, shall, unless he lands at a Foreign Animals Wharf, effectually wash and disinfect himself, and change or effectually disinfect his clothes, so as to prevent the introduction or spreading of foot-and-mouth disease by him or his clothes.

4. The animals shall not be landed except with the permission of an Inspector of the Board, which permission will only be given where the Inspector is satisfied that sufficient lairage and other accommodation is available for the landing and slaughter of the animals in accordance with the provisions of this Order; and provided the animals are, if so required by an Inspector of the Board, previously transhipped into vessels approved for such purpose by the Inspector.

5. The animals shall only be landed at such part of the Wharf as an Inspector of the Board may direct, and when landed shall be driven by lairage-men to such lairs within the limits of the Wharf as may be specially approved for that purpose by an Inspector of the Board.

6. After such examination as may be required by an Inspector of the Board, the animals shall either be immediately slaughtered in the lairs in which they then are, or they may, with the permission of an Inspector of the Board, be forthwith moved to a slaughter-house specially approved for that purpose by an Inspector of the Board and there immediately slaughtered.

7. After the animals shall have been landed the said vessel shall, if instructions to such effect be given by an Inspector of the Board, proceed to sea for a preliminary cleansing and disinfection of the parts of the vessel used for animals, subject to such supervision as the Board may require, and in accordance with any instructions given by an Inspector of the Board.

8. Any fittings used in connection with the animals shall, if so required by an Inspector of the Board, be landed and burnt at such place and in such manner as the Inspector may direct.

9. This Order shall be read as part of the Foreign Animals Order of 1896 and Article 31 (Offences) of that Order shall apply to offences against this Order.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and three.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 3RD JUNE 1903.)

HELMESLEY AND DISTRICT (SWINE-FEVER) PROHIBITION OF MOVEMENT ORDER OF 1903.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Movement of swine into out of or within Scheduled District.

1. No swine shall be moved into or out of the district described in the Schedule to this Order, hereinafter referred to as the Scheduled District, or be moved along over or across a highway or thoroughfare within the Scheduled District; provided that nothing in this Order shall be deemed to apply to the movement of swine into or out of the Scheduled District where they are moved through such District by railway from a place outside such District to another place outside such District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or rebooked within such District.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

2. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

3.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(2.) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order allows a pig to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Short Title.

4. This Order may be cited as the HELMESLEY AND DISTRICT (SWINE-FEVER) PROHIBITION OF MOVEMENT ORDER OF 1903.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and three.

A. W. Anstruther,
Assistant-Secretary.
