

James Hardy Honeyburne, Clerk in Holy Orders and Honorary Canon of Liverpool of Abbotsbury Number 23 Duke-street, Southport, in the county of Lancaster John Henry Buxton of Hunsdon Bury Ware in the county of Hertford Esquire the Reverend John William Diggle, Clerk in Holy Orders of the Rectory, Birmingham in the county of Warwick and Hugh Arthur Nind Smith of Number one Saint Philip's-place Birmingham aforesaid Esquire and their heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles now Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that such transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary.

"And whereas in consideration of the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Stephen Selly Hill which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed a sum of five hundred pounds has been paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for the augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Saint Stephen Selly Hill and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the new parish of Saint Stephen Selly Hill.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward Gem, Thomas Harrison and Clement René Sharpe (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, James Hardy Honeyburne, John Henry Buxton, John William Diggle, and Hugh Arthur Nind Smith (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Selly Hill now vested in them the said Edward Gem and Thomas Harrison for their lives and for the life of the survivor of them and afterwards in the vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Selly Oak and his successors in perpetuity as aforesaid shall be transferred from them to the said Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, James Hardy Honeyburne, John Henry Buxton, John William Diggle and Hugh Arthur Nind Smith and their heirs and assigns and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Hanmer William Webb-Peploe, James Hardy Honeyburne, John Henry Buxton, John William Diggle and Hugh Arthur Nind Smith and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester. A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Aldhelm, situate at Tanners End, in the parish of Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Edmonton and of the new parish (some-time district chapelry) of Upper Edmonton in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Edmonton and of the said new parish of Upper Edmonton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Aldhelm situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Edmonton, and also as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Upper Edmonton (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or capitular seal to this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of
