The following Address was presented to Their Majesties King Edward the Seventh and Queen Alexandra, at Farnborough Railway Station, on the occasion of the Review by His Majesty, on the 8th instant, of the First Army Corps on Laffan's Plain, Aldershot:—

To His Most Excellent Majesty
King Edward VII.

By the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of all the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, and to Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Alexandra.

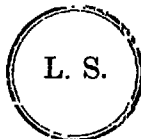

May it please Your Majesties.

The Urban District Council of Farnborough, in the county of Southampton, on behalf of the Inhabitants of the District, desire on this the first visit of Their Majesties to Farnborough since Their Coronation to express the Council's respectful loyalty and humbly tender their hearty congratulations on His Majesty's restoration to health and express an earnest hope that Their Majesties' Reign may be long, happy, and prosperous, and to Your illustrious visitor President Loubet we extend a hearty welcome and an earnest desire for a sincere and lasting friendship between our two great nations.

GEORGE VAWDREY,
Chairman.

J. A. KINGDON,
Clerk.

July 8, 1903.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Gracious Answer:—

"On behalf of Queen Alexandra and Myself, I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"It gives Me much pleasure to visit once more the town of Farnborough; and the day is rendered more notable by the presence of the distinguished President of the French Republic whose welcome visit to Our country will remain long in Our memories."
