A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of July, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said late Majesty chapter sixty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the Archdeaconry of Manchester in the diocese of Manchester, and to some of the Rural Deaneries within such Archdeaconry.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of July in the same year certain re-arrangements of the Rural Deaneries of the said Archdeaconry of Manchester were effected.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend James Bishop of Manchester that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the Rural Deanery of Eccles and the Rural Deanery of Salford both in the said Archdeaconry of Manchester, are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"And whereas the said arrangements involve the transfer of three cures from the said Rural Deanery of Eccles to the said Rural Deanery of Salford.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said James Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than
