MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 1903.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

EDWARD, R. & I.

Whereas by "The Exportation of Arms Act, 1900," Section 1, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Proclamation to prohibit the exportation of all or any of the following articles, namely: Arms, ammunition, military and naval stores, and any article which His Majesty shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of arms, ammunition, or military or naval stores to any country or place therein named, whenever His Majesty shall judge such prohibitions to be expedient in order to prevent such arms, ammunition, military or naval stores being used against His Majesty's subjects or forces, or against any forces engaged or which may be engaged in military or naval operations in co-operation with His Majesty's forces.

Whereas a Proclamation was issued dated August seventh, one thousand nine hundred, prohibiting the exportation to China of arms and ammunition from and after the date aforesaid.

And whereas We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, judge it no longer expedient to prohibit the exportation to China of arms and ammunition.

Now, We, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby repeal the said Proclamation prohibiting the exportation to China of arms and ammunition from and after the date hereof.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this tenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and in the third year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.
