

2. This Order shall be construed as one with "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1897," hereinafter called the "Principal Order."

3.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Principal Order, a Second Assistant Judge may be appointed for the Court for Zanzibar.

(2.) The Second Assistant Judge shall be appointed in like manner and upon the same conditions as, and shall possess the like qualifications as are required for, the Assistant Judge.

(3.) The Second Assistant Judge shall have the same powers as the Assistant Judge.

(4.) In case of the illness or temporary absence of the Second Assistant Judge, or of his temporary appointment as Judge or Assistant Judge, the Consul-General may appoint either a person qualified to be appointed Second Assistant Judge, or a person appointed to hold a subordinate Court under the Principal Order, or a commissioned Consular officer to act as Second Assistant Judge.

4. The Assistant Judge and the Second Assistant Judge shall respectively undertake such part of the duties prescribed in the Principal Order for the Assistant Judge and such other duties of a judicial, magisterial, or legal nature as the Judge, with the approval of the Secretary of State, shall direct.

5. In the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Zanzibar of the Consul-General for the time being, all and every the powers and authorities by the Principal Order granted to him shall, until His Majesty's further pleasure is signified through the Secretary of State, be vested in the senior Consular officer in His Majesty's service for the time being in Zanzibar.

6. The production of a grant of probate or of letters of administration shall, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any Indian Act or Law in force in Zanzibar or in the Principal Order, be necessary to establish the right to recover or receive any part of the estate or effects of any deceased person situate in Zanzibar.

7. The powers of the Secretary of State with respect to the application to Zanzibar of enactments and Acts of the Governor-General of India in Council or of the Governor of Bombay in Council under Article 11 of the Principal Order, and of laws and ordinances for the time being in force in African possessions of His Majesty, under Article 13 of that Order shall, on the commencement of this Order, be transferred to the Consul-General, but those powers shall be exercised by him only by means of Regulations made under and subject in all respects to the provisions of Article 47 of the Principal Order.

8. The Consul-General may by Regulations made under, and subject in all respects to, the provisions of Article 47 of the Principal Order, repeal or amend with respect to Zanzibar any enactments, Acts, laws, or ordinances which are made applicable or have been brought into operation in Zanzibar by or under any of the provisions of Articles 11 and 13 of the Principal Order.

9. In Article 9 of the Principal Order the word "Judge" shall be substituted for the word "Consul-General."

10. The following provisions of the Principal Order are hereby repealed:—

Article 3 (iii). The words from "including" to "Consul-General."

Article 9. The word "Consul-General."

Article 11 (e) (iii). The words "relating to civil or criminal procedure or to procedure in bankruptcy."

Article 31 (2) and Article 32. The words "in Zanzibar."

And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by the County Courts Act, 1888, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council from time to time to order, amongst other things, the consolidation of any two or more districts, and to order by what name and in what towns and places a Court shall be held in any district.

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered that the district of the County Court of Lincolnshire held at Market Rasen, and the district of the County Court of Lincolnshire, held at Caistor, shall be consolidated under the name of the County Court of Lincolnshire, held at Market Rasen and Caistor, and a Court shall be held in that district at both Market Rasen and Caistor until further Order.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also, that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbents and the churchwardens of the parishes of Saint Peter and
