

appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Holy Trinity, Poynings, in the county of East Sussex, from the time specified in such Order ; and whereas the time for the discontinuance of burials therein has, from time to time, been postponed ; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Holy Trinity, Poynings, in the county of East Sussex, be further postponed to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

Privy Council Office, December 8, 1903.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, Oxford, on the 21st day of November, 1903 (and sealed on the 5th day of December, 1903), amending Statute XIIa, Clause 2, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877" :—

Whereas the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, did by an Instrument under their seal dated the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, make certain Statutes thereunto annexed for the College of All Souls of the Faithful Departed, commonly called All Souls College, in the University of Oxford.

And whereas such Statutes were approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

And whereas No. 12a, Clause 2, one of such Statutes is in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"2. From and after the 2nd day of November 1887, elections may be held to not more than three Fellowships with emoluments in every year (exclusively of any elections under Statute III, cl. 10) until provision is made out of the revenues of the College for all the purposes provided for in Statutes IV, V, and VI. Two of the Fellowships which may be so filled up in each year shall be Fellowships awarded after examination in subjects connected with the studies of Law and History. So long as the foregoing limitation continues in force not more than one election may be made in each year under Statute III, cl. 10."

And whereas at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of our said College, specially summoned for that purpose and held on the twenty-first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and three, it was by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present at such Meeting and voting Resolved that in Statute 12a, Clause 2 of the College Statutes the paragraph—

"So long as the foregoing limitation continues in force not more than one election may be made in each year under Statute III, cl. 10" should be repealed. And that in lieu thereof the following paragraph should be substituted, viz. :—

"So long as the foregoing limitation continues in force, the number of Fellows elected under Statute III, cl. 10, entitled to receive emolument shall not at any time exceed such number as would then have been entitled to Fellowships under that Clause had one such Fellow been elected in each year after this Statute came into operation, and shall not in any case exceed seven. The Fellows entitled to receive emolument shall be determined according to priority of election under the said Clause: provided that a Fellow elected under the said Clause, who immediately on the expiration of the term of his Fellowship is re-elected under the same Clause, shall continue to be one of the Fellows entitled to receive emolument."

Now we the said College, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do hereby submit the aforesaid alterations so made by us in the Statutes governing our said College to the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, and humbly pray that the same may be approved and confirmed.

In witness whereof we have set our Common Seal this fifth day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

The Common Seal of the above-named College was hereunto affixed in the presence of

William Reynell Anson,
Warden of All Souls College.
