

called 'the said benefice') of Little Coates, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Coates is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of Lincoln in his private capacity.

"And whereas the said Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Coates now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being.

"And whereas the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token of his desire and also in token of his willingness as such Bishop to accept such transfer and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Little Coates which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists; that is to say in the parish of Little Coates.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Little Coates now vested in him the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln in his private capacity as aforesaid shall be transferred to himself the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln as such Bishop and to his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Algarkirk, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Algarkirk is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Alfred Shuttleworth, of Eastgate House, in the city of Lincoln Esquire.

"And whereas the said Alfred Shuttleworth is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Algarkirk now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Algarkirk which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the particular parish of Algarkirk.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Shuttleworth (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his
