At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of and advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Stephen, Haggerston, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Haggerston, is vested for an estate in fee simple without encumbrances in the Reverend John Ross, vicar of Waterbeach, in the county of Cambridge, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Richard Foster, of Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, Esquire.

"And whereas the said John Ross and Richard Foster are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen Haggerston now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley now Bishop of the said diocese of London is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Arthur Foley Bishop of the said diocese of London has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Stephen Haggerston which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Stephen Haggerston.

"Now therefore with the consents of the said John Ross and Richard Foster (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen Haggerston now vested in them the said John Ross and Richard Foster as aforesaid shall be transferred from them to the said Arthur Foley Bishop of the said diocese of London and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Foley Bishop of the said diocese of London and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."
