"Whereas the Reverend Wilmot Guy Bryan of the vicarage Lingfield in the county of Surrey Clerk in Holy Orders in whom is vested the advowson or perpetual right of presentation to the said benefice of Lingfield for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances has contracted with Arthur Day of No. 28, Great George-street in the city of Westminster Gentleman for the sale of the said advowson to the said Arthur Day for the like estate free from incumbrances.

"And whereas the said Arthur Day is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Lingfield now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Rochester for the time being.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart now Bishop of Rochester is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Stuart Bishop of Rochester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Lingfield which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Lingfield.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Wilmot Guy Bryan and Arthur Day (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart Bishop of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Lingfield now vested in them the said Wilmot Guy Bryan and Arthur Day as aforesaid shall be transferred from them to the said Edward Stuart Bishop of Rochester and his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Stuart Bishop of Rochester and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.
