

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Malvern Link, in the county of Worcester, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the civil parish of Malvern Link without the previous approval of the Local Government Board:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the sixteenth day of November last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-eighth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parish of Malvern Link without the previous approval of the Local Government Board.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter, Osmotherley, in the North Riding of the county of York, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas the time for the discontinuance of burials therein has, from time to time, been postponed; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter, Osmotherley, in the North Riding of the county of York, be further postponed to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Dunstan, Manaccan, in the county of Cornwall; of the parish of Saint Mary, South Stoneham, in the county of

Southampton; of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Rothwell, in the county of Northampton; and of the parish of Saint Gregory, Rendlesham, in the county of East Suffolk, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Manaccan, South Stoneham, Rothwell, and Rendlesham, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

MANACCAN.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Dunstan, Manaccan, in the county of Cornwall; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

SOUTH STONEHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, South Stoneham, in the county of Southampton; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

(c.) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom, or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

ROTHWELL.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of the Holy Trinity, Rothwell, in the county of Northampton; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave.

RENDLESHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Gregory, Rendlesham, in the county of East Suffolk; and in that portion of the churchyard which was in use in one thousand nine hundred and two, provided that—

In the vault belonging to the family of Lord Rendlesham, and in the walled grave
