

and diocese of York aforesaid which are respectively called or known as The Island and Pilkington Ness and which are situate immediately on the north bank of the River Calder aforesaid: which said portions of the parish of Featherstone are contiguous to the above described portion of the parish of Methley and have become isolated from the main portion of the said parish of Featherstone by the formation of the said new parish of Whitwood Mere.

"And further of all that portion of the said parish of Swillington wherein the houses called or known as Lemon Royd are situate and which said portion of such parish is situate between the Aire and Calder Navigation Canal and the River Aire aforesaid and is bounded on the south, south-west and west by the above described portion of the said parish of Methley on the north-west by the parish of Rothwell aforesaid and on the remaining sides that is to say on the north-east and on the north by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Swillington aforesaid at the point where the said River Aire is joined by Oulton Beck aforesaid and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same river to the boundary which divides the said parish of Swillington from the parish of Methley aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the three cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and also the Incumbents of two of the said cures have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the Incumbent of the parish of Methley has offered a certain objection to the said scheme.

And whereas, notwithstanding such objection, the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said dioceses of York and Ripon.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen

Victoria chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of that part or residue of the original parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester which under the fourth section of the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850, constitutes for all ecclesiastical purposes the parish of Manchester and partly out of the parish (sometime district under the said Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850) of Saint Alban Cheetwood within the limits of the said original parish of Manchester.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said ecclesiastical parish of Manchester and the said parish of Saint Alban Cheetwood are parishes wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said ecclesiastical parish of Manchester and of the said parish of Saint Alban Cheetwood which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas we are satisfied that an adequate and permanent maintenance for the support of the minister of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish then for the support of the Incumbent thereof will be secured as from the date of the licensing or appointment of such minister or Incumbent by the payment of a sum of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds which will be annually provided out of the moneys received by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the provisions of the said Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnot, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said ecclesiastical parish of Manchester and of the said parish of Saint Alban Cheetwood which are more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Saviour Cheetham.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Saviour Cheetham comprising:—

"I. All the following portion of that part or residue of the original parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of
