In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Kekewich.
1904. C. No. 040.

In the Matter of the COMMERCIAL STEAMSHIP COMPANY Limited and Reduced; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition presented to the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, on the 3rd March, 1904, for confirming a Special Resolution reducing the capital of the above Company from £107,650, divided into 10,765 shares of £10 each, to £64,590, divided into 10,765 shares of £6 each, is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice Joyce, on Saturday, the 16th April, 1904. Any creditor or shareholder of the Company desiring to oppose the making of an Order for the reduction of the capital of the said Company under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for that purpose; and a copy of the petition may be seen by any creditor or shareholder at the office of the Company, situate at No. 85, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, and on payment of the regulated charges for the same a copy will be supplied by the Solicitor under-mentioned.—Dated this 18th of March, 1904.

WILLIAM BINNS SMITH, Master of the Supreme Court.

E. H. GALSWORTHY, 12, Old Jewry-chambers, 134 London, E.C., Solicitor for the Company.

has by absence from the United Kingdom for more than 12 months, or by reason of his neglect or refusal to act or by his unfitness to act as a trustee of and under an indenture of settlement dated the 4th October, 1901, and made between the defendants Joseph Edward and Dora Lyndall, of the 1st and 2nd parts respectively, and the said Alfred Stapleton Lyndall and the plaintiff of the 3rd part, being a settlement made pursuant to articles entered into on the 15th June, 1900, in anticipation of the marriage of the defendant Joseph Edward Lyndall, and the defendant Dora Lyndall (then Dora Farr), vacated his office or position as a trustee of the funds comprised in the said settlement. 2. That Henry Byrne-Jones, of 46, Queen Victoria-street, in the city of London, Accountant, or some other fit and proper person may be appointed a trustee of the said settlement jointly with the plaintiff and in the place of the said Alfred Stapleton Lyndall. 3. That the real and personal property and the right to sue for and recover any chose in action subject to and comprised in the said settlement may be vested in the plaintiff and the said Henry Byrne-Jones, or such other fit and proper person as aforesaid, as trustees of the said settlement. 4. Against the defendant Thomas James Brooks and the defendants Joseph Edward and Dora Lyndall a declaration that the pledge or hypothecation of the furniture and effects comprised in the said settlement of 4th October, 1901, and alleged to have been made on or about the 1st April, 1903, is bad in law and void against the plaintiff and the other trustee or trustees of the said settlement. 5. And against the said defendants Thomas James Brooks, Joseph Edward Lyndall, and Dora Lyndall delivery to the plaintiff of the said furniture and effects. 6. And against the said defendants damages for the conversion of the said furniture and effects. 7. Against the defendants Joseph Edward and Dora Lyndall a declaration that the plaintiff should redeem the said furniture and effects by discharging the claim of the defendant Thomas James Brooks out of the capital funds in his possession, as trustee of the said settlement, and that he should retain out of the funds to come to him, as income of the trust funds subject to the said settlement, sufficient to reimburse and restore to the said trust funds the amount so disbursed by him in discharging the said claim as aforesaid. 8. A receiver. 9. That the costs hereof may be provided for. And take notice, that by an Order dated the 10th day of March, 1904, it was ordered that the publication by advertisement in this form of the said Writ of Summons and of the said Order twice in the Times, and twice in the Daily Mail, and once in the London Gazette should be deemed good and sufficient service of the said Writ of Summons upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, London, within eight days after the last of such advertisements, the plaintiff may proceed in the said action, and Judgment may be given in your absence.

WILLIAM BINNS SMITH, Master of the Supreme Court.
