

“And whereas the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Kinson, is now full, the Incumbent being the Reverend Arnold Mortimer Sharp, Clerk in Holy Orders.

“And whereas the said Arnold Mortimer Sharp is consenting that the apportionment hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take place as from the day hereinafter mentioned in that behalf.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Salisbury acting as Bishop of the diocese within which each of the said two benefices is situate (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Ivor Bertie, Baron Wimborne, acting as the patron of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Arnold Mortimer Sharp (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette all that sum of seven hundred pounds five pounds per centum debenture stock of the Poole Waterworks Company held by us for the benefit of the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Kinson, as part of the endowments of such benefice, and also all that capital sum of seven hundred pounds granted by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Kinson, by an Instrument dated the twenty-seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of the following month shall be transferred by way of apportionment from the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Kinson, and shall be annexed to and form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Saint Clement, Branksome.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of May, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that “Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be

“separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes,” it is, amongst other things, enacted “That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect.”

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Archbishop of York, hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a report, dated the ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four, to His Majesty in Council in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“The undersigned William Dalrymple by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York Primate of England and Metropolitan pursuant to the 26th section of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter 106 hereby reports to Your Majesty in Council.

“That there is in the county of York and diocese of York the parish of the vicarage of Elloughton which comprises the township of Wauldby the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

“That there is also in the same county and diocese the parish of the vicarage of Welton-with-Melton which adjoins the said township of Wauldby.

“That according to the last census the population of the said parish of Elloughton was 973 persons and that of the said parish of Welton-with-Melton was 787 persons and that of the said township of Wauldby was 50 persons.
