TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1904.

Whitehall, August 2, 1904.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Rhayader, on Thursday, the 21st July, for the purpose of opening the new Elan Waterworks of the Birmingham Corporation:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

We, on behalf of the inhabitants of Radnorshire, desire to accord to Your Majesties a most hearty welcome to our county, on the occasion of Your visit to open the Birmingham Waterworks.

We humbly acknowledge, with thankfulness, the great interest and care which Your Majesties manifest towards all classes of Your subjects in all portions of Your Empire, and it is our devout trust and prayer that the Almighty may be pleased to extend to Your Majesty and our Most Gracious Queen many years of health and happiness and a long reign over a devoted people, attended with peace and prosperity.

July 21st, 1904.

Powlett C. Milbank, Lord Lieutenant.

John Corrie Carter, Chairman Quarter Sessions.

C. C. Rogers, Chairman County Council.

Frank Edwards, Member for County.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you heartily on My own behalf and on behalf of the Queen for the loyal and dutiful address which you have presented to Us from the inhabitants of this beautiful county.

"The opportunity which the present occasion affords Us of seeing Our people in Wales gives Us great pleasure.

"We wish all prosperity to the County of Radnor, and We shall always retain a pleasant recollection of Our visit to this portion of Our Kingdom."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

We, Your dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the County Council of Radnorshire, on behalf of ourselves and speaking for those whom we represent to carry out the administrative and educational duties of this County, humbly approach Your Majesty, and beg leave to offer a hearty welcome to You, and to Your Royal Consort, Queen Alexandra, on Your arrival in our County, and to assure Your Majesties that we deeply and gratefully appreciate the honour You have conferred upon us, by Your visit to this picturesque country-side in the heart of Mid-Wales.

In tendering our homage we can assure Your Majesties that in no part of Your dominions, in those places where it is possible for a more numerous population to come out to meet and to greet You or a more splendid reception to await You, could a purer loyalty, a stronger sense of devotion to Your Majesty's Person and Throne, or a more sincere and lively wish for Your prosperity and happiness—and the prosperity and happiness of Her most Gracious Majesty Queen Alexandra—be felt, than in this privileged corner of Your mighty Empire.

We read in old County Chronicles that in past ages the Royal Cockade worn in these parts was a blue and white "ribband" having the following motto, "We long to see our King." We assure Your Majesty that this sentiment still animates us here.

We cannot refrain from adding that we all here shall ever feel proud in the recollection that it has been our peculiar good fortune to belong to a neighbourhood in the Principality of Wales—that fourth gem of the British Crown, which gives a title to its heir—that has been so early honoured with the august presence of Your Majesties.

And we assure Your Majesties that if it may be our good fortune in the long life of happiness and good health that we all hope and pray may be in store for You, that You should ever see fit to re-visit our health-giving locality, and to look again upon the natural beauty of our wild hill scenery, the same warm welcome that we so sincerely accord to Your Majesties to day, will await You in the future.

Chas. Coltman Rogers,
Chairman Radnor County Council.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"On behalf of the Queen and Myself I heartily thank you for your loyal and dutiful address of welcome.

"My long connection as Prince of Wales with this portion of My dominions assures Me of the truth of the statements made by you, which have been fully borne out during My present enjoyable visit, of the affectionate loyalty of My people in Wales.

"I have admired with the keenest pleasure the beautiful scenery of your county, and I wish all prosperity to its inhabitants.

"I am assured that your zeal in the discharge of important functions, and your efforts to promote the well-being of those whose interests have been entrusted to you, are fully appreciated, and will meet with well-deserved success."

To the King's and Queen's Most Excellent Majesties.

The Humble, Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Rural District Council of Rhayader, in the County of Radnor, and the Guardians of the Rhayader Union.

May it please Your Majesties,

On the occasion of Your visit to Rhayader to inaugurate the Birmingham Waterworks, we humbly beg to be allowed to offer to Your Majesties the assurance of our loyal attachment to Your Throne and Person.

It affords us great pleasure to welcome as our Sovereign one, who through so long a term of years, bore the ancient title of Prince of Wales.

Centuries ago the people of the district which we represent proved their loyalty to their last native Prince of Wales. Their successors to-day are no less loyal to their Prince and their King, and we rejoice that Your Majesties have found an opportunity in the midst of Your numerous engagements to come among us.

We trust that Your Majesties will carry away with You pleasant recollections of Welsh loyalty, and of the beautiful and romantic scenery of Rhayader and its neighbourhood.

We pray that Your Majesties' reign may be long and prosperous, and that the Divine Protection may ever rest upon You.

Given under our respective Common Seals this 21st day of July, 1904.

Benjamin Pugh Lewis,
Chairman of Council. (L. S.)

David Lloyd,
Chairman of Guardians. (L. S.)

George Morgan Jarman,
Clerk to Council and Guardians.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"The Queen and I are glad to accept the loyal address which has been presented to Us by the Rural District Council of Rhayader and the Guardians of the Rhayader Union, and We thank you heartily for your good wishes.

"We rejoice to remember the close tie which exists between the Crown and Wales, and the devoted loyalty which you have shown, not only to Us but also to Our Dear Son, the Prince of Wales.

"It gives Us much pleasure to be able to visit this peaceful and beautiful district in the heart of the Principality, and to see signs of your prosperity on every hand. We shall carry away a happy recollection of Our journey."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The Humble, Loyal, and Dutiful Address of the Llansaintfread Cwmdaiddwr Parish Council.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

We, the Parish Councillors of the Parish of Llansaintfread Cwmdaiddwr, in the County of Radnor, humbly desire to lay before Your Majesties an expression of our loyal and dutiful attachment and of our most sincere gratification on the visit of Your Majesties to our loyal and ancient Parish, and on behalf of the inhabitants we accord to Your Majesties a most hearty welcome.

Pryce Davies, Chairman.

W. Bowen Hamer, Clerk.

"It gives Us much satisfaction to have this opportunity of meeting with so many of Our Welsh subjects. We shall ever remember with pleasure this visit to your ancient Parish, and shall always take a sincere interest in your welfare."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' faithful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Your City of Birmingham in Council assembled, humbly approach Your Royal Presence on this occasion with feelings of deep gratitude.

The great Undertaking which Your Majesties have graciously consented to recognize—the provision of an abundant supply of pure water to our City and neighbourhood—has been a work of many years' duration, involving much thought, great cost, and arduous labour.

But, Finis coronat opus, and to-day Your Majesties honour the City by opening our Elan Waterworks, the source, as we hope, of increased health and comfort to our great industrial population.

Your Majesties' names are identified with the cause of peace. Great Public Works are among the victories of peace, and it is with heartfelt recognition of Your Majesties' efforts in this direction, that we welcome Your Royal Presence at the completion of this great Undertaking.

We thank Your Majesties most sincerely for Your gracious visit, and with renewed assurances of our loyalty and duty, we humbly pray for Your Majesties' future happiness, and that You may long be spared to reign over a prosperous, happy, and contented people.

Given under our Common Seal this 21st day of July, 1904.

Hallewell Rogers,
Lord Mayor.
Edward Orford Smith,
Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you sincerely on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful address and for the good wishes towards Us which you have therein expressed.

"We take great interest in the important scheme for providing the City of Birmingham with an abundant supply of pure water which We have the pleasure of inaugurating to-day, and are heartily glad of an opportunity of celebrating the completion of a great public work so essential to the well-being of a vast community such as that of Birmingham.

"We admire the public spirit, energy, and skill which have effected the accomplishment of so beneficent an undertaking, and cordially endorse your hope that the Elan Waterworks may be the source of increased health and comfort to your great industrial population.

"That the blessings of Peace may be long enjoyed by Our Country, and time be thus gained for the development of commerce and for effecting improvements in every department of Our national life, is Our fervent desire."

Whitehall, August 2, 1904.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on Thursday, the 21st July last, when Their Majesties passed through Welshpool after the ceremony of the opening of the Elan

Waterworks for the benefit of the City of Birmingham:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' humble and loyal subjects, the Council of the County of Montgomery, beg leave to tender to Your Majesties a most cordial and loyal welcome on Your passage through the County.

We recall with gratitude the interest which Your Majesties have always displayed in the welfare of the Principality, and especially in that of its University and Intermediate Schools.

The great work which the Birmingham Corporation have now completed is one of much interest to the inhabitants of this County from which the City of Liverpool already very largely derives its water supply.

Your inauguration this day is one of many evidences of Your readiness to aid in whatever may conduce to the health and happiness of the people committed to Your charge.

We pray that Your Majesties may long continue to reign in peace over a loyal and prosperous nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the Council this 18th day of July, 1904.

"It is interesting to know that two of Our largest communities in England derive a great portion of their water supply from this neighbourhood; and We have with much pleasure assisted at the opening of the Elan Waterworks for the benefit of the City of Birmingham.

"I have always taken a warm interest in the welfare of the Principality, and the continued prosperity of this portion of My Dominions is the subject of My sincere good wishes."

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Welshpool, humbly take the opportunity, so graciously and kindly accorded to us, of tendering to Your Majesties our loyal and dutiful greeting on the occasion of your journey through Powysland.

Our ancient Borough, comprising as it does more than twenty thousand acres, is one of the largest in Your Majesties' dominions, and, though sparsely populated, Your Majesties may rest assured that its Burgesses give place to none in intense loyalty and devotion to our King, our Queen, and our Country.

We trust that Your Majesties have derived pleasure from Your visit to the Principality, and earnestly pray that Your Majesties may continue long to reign over us enjoying the best of health and happiness.

"The prosperity of your ancient Borough will always be an object of Our sincere interest."

Whitehall, August 3, 1904.

The following Address was presented to His Majesty, on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit, on Friday, the 22nd July, to the new Hall and Offices of the Royal Horticultural Society in Vincent-square, Westminster, to declare the buildings to be open:—

To the King's and Queen's Most Excellent Majesties.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the President, the Vice-Presidents, the Council, and the Fellows of the Royal Horticultural Society—who now number more than 8,000—venture, with our loyal duty and greeting, to welcome Your Majesties to our new Hall.

The Centenary of the Society, which was founded in March, 1804, is rendered memorable by the erection of the building in which we are assembled, and by the acquisition, through the generosity of Sir Thomas Hanbury, K.C.V.O., of a celebrated garden, in place of that at Chiswick, which had become unsuitable for the purposes of the Society owing to the advance of suburban London westward.

The first Charter of the Society, granted by His Majesty King George III, in 1809, set out the objects for which the Society had been founded—namely, "The Improvement of Horticulture in all its branches, ornamental as well as useful."

Through the collectors sent out by the Society during the 40 years from 1821 to 1861, great numbers of beautiful and useful trees, shrubs, and plants have been introduced into, and acclimatized in, the British Isles. The success attending these expeditions may be realized when the late Mr. Andrew Murray was able to say, with undeniable truth, in his "Book of the Royal Horticultural Society," "The results" (of the work of the Society's collectors) "have affected the appearance of all England. Nowhere can a day's ride now be taken where the landscape is not beautified by some of the introductions of the Royal Horticultural Society."

Added to this, professional gardeners have been greatly assisted and encouraged by the help and support of our Society in the elaborate and valuable work of hybridization and selection, by which new and improved varieties of plants, fruits, and vegetables have been raised in vast numbers.

The Fortnightly Shows of the Society have achieved a widespread celebrity. At them all the more interesting new plants, as well as the more important results of skilled horticultural effort, are first seen and first submitted to the judgment of the most competent experts in the Kingdom.

The adherence of the Society to the work of promoting horticulture in all its branches can hardly fail to secure the approbation of the garden-loving race over whom Your Majesty reigns. This is shown by the rapid increase in the number of its Fellows, which has risen from about 1,300 in 1887 to 8,150 now. Every day witnesses advances in many directions, but no art or science has progressed more rapidly during the last 50 years than that of horticulture. The demand for flowers and fruits has grown to such an extent that it has developed a great and valuable industry, and the countenance which Your Majesties have graciously extended to our Society has largely assisted in creating, guiding, and helping this valuable national asset.

We take this opportunity of expressing our enduring obligations to Your Majesties for the many and gracious visits you have in years past paid to our Society's shows—visits which have done much to encourage us in our efforts to foster and maintain in the highest efficiency the science and art of horticulture. And in thanking Your Majesties for Your presence here to-day and for the warm interest You have ever shown in the Society, we desire to assure You that the valuable help the illustrious Prince Consort gave the Society in days of serious difficulty—now some 45 years ago—has never been forgotten.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"In the name of the Queen and Myself I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"I am very glad that you have at length obtained a suitable Hall for your beautiful and interesting shows, and adequate accommodation for your library, and for the performance of the official work of the Society; and it is with great pleasure that the Queen and I are here to-day to declare these new buildings to be open.

"We are pleased, also, to be able to congratulate the Society upon their having acquired the garden to which you allude, and for which you are indebted to the goodness of Sir Thomas Hanbury.

"The love of horticulture has increased immensely in this Country within the last Century, owing in part, no doubt, to the greatly extended facilities enjoyed by Our people for visiting rural places; and no science deserves more encouragement than that which tends to promote the study of the art of gardening, and to stimulate a taste so wholesome and elevating as the love of trees and of flowers.

"Our visits to your Exhibitions have always given Us great satisfaction; and I remember, and am touched by your allusion to, the interest which My Dear Father took in your Society.

"The Queen and Myself wish that every success may attend the opening of this new Hall and its adjoining premises, and trust that the centenary which we are celebrating to-day may prove to be the occasion of an accession of prosperity to the Royal Horticultural Society."

Whitehall, August 6, 1904.
