TUESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1904.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Army Council has been constituted under His Majesty's Letters Patent, and it is expedient to make such provision as is hereinafter contained with respect thereto:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The Secretary of State is to be responsible to His Majesty and Parliament for all the business of the Army Council.

All business, other than business which the Secretary of State specially reserves to himself, is to be transacted in the following principal divisions:—

- (a.) The first military member of the Army Council (the Chief of the General Staff), the second military member of the Army Council (the Adjutant-General), the third military member of the Army Council (the Quarter-Master-General), and the fourth military member of the Army Council (the Master-General of Ordnance) to be responsible to the Secretary of State for the administration of so much of the business relating to the organization, disposition, personnel, armament, and maintenance of the Army as shall be assigned to them or each of them from time to time by the Secretary of State.
- (b.) The finance member of the Army Council to be responsible to the Secretary of State for the finance of the Army, and for so much of the other business of the Army Council as may be assigned to him from time to time by the Secretary of State.
- (c.) The civil member of the Army Council to be responsible to the Secretary of State for the non-effective votes, and for so much of the other business of the Army Council as may be assigned to him from time to time by the Secretary of State.

2. The Secretary of the War Office will act as Secretary of the Army Council, and will be charged with the interior economy of the War Office, and the preparation of all official communications of the Council, and with such other duties as the Secretary of State may from time to time assign to him.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased to appoint an Inspector-General of the Forces, and it is expedient to prescribe generally the duties of that Officer:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

The duties of the Inspector-General of the Forces, are, under the orders and direction of the Army Council, to review generally, and to report to the Army Council on, the practical results of the policy of that Council, and for that purpose to inspect and report upon the training and efficiency of all troops under the control of the Home Government, on the suitability of their armament and equipment, on the condition of fortifications and defences, and generally on the readiness and fitness of the Army for war.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Army Council having been constituted under His Majesty's Letters Patent, it is expedient that the functions of the Officer charged with the accounting of Army Votes, Accounts, and Funds should be defined:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

The Director of Army Finance will act as Deputy and Assistant to the Finance Member of Council, and, as the Accounting Officer of Army Votes, Accounts, and Funds, shall be charged with the allowance and payment of all moneys for Army Services; with accounting for and auditing all cash expenditure and preparing the annual accounts of such expenditure for Parliament; with the audit of all Manufacturing Expense, Supply, and Store Accounts; and with advising the Administrative Officers at the War Office and in commands on all questions of Army expenditure.

A. W. FitzRoy.

COUNTY OF LONDON

BUSINESS OF A DRESSER OF FISH SKINS.

The London County Council hereby gives notice that it has made an Order declaring the business of a dresser of fish skins to be an offensive business within the meaning of Section 19, Sub-section 1 (b) of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, and that the said Order has been duly confirmed by the Local Government Board. The Order is as follows:—

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

Public Health (London) Act, 1891 (54 & 55 Vic. c. 76).

Whereas by Section 19 Sub-section 1 of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, it is enacted as follows:—

If any person

(a) Establishes anew the following businesses or any of them, that is to say, the business of blood boiler, bone boiler, manure manufacturer, soap boiler, tallow melter, or knacker; or

(b) Establishes anew without the sanction of the County Council the following businesses or any of them, that is to say, the business of fellmonger, tripe boiler, slaughterer of cattle or horses, or any other business which the County Council may declare by Order confirmed by the Local Government Board and published in the London Gazette to be an offensive business, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds in respect of the establishment thereof, and any person carrying on the same when established shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which he so carries on the same.

And whereas it has been represented to the London County Council being the County Council mentioned in the above Section that the business of a dresser of fish skins is an offensive business and ought to be so declared, and the said Council after due enquiry and consideration have determined to make an Order accordingly. Now, the London County Council in pursuance of the provisions of the above-mentioned Statute, do by this Order declare for the purposes of the said Statute that the following business is an offensive business, that is to say, the business of a dresser of fish skins, that is to say, any business in which fish skins are trimmed, cleansed, scraped or dried. In witness whereof the said Council have caused their Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Sealed by Order,
G. L. GOMME,
Clerk of the Council.

Confirmed by the Local Government Board this thirtieth day of July, 1904.

S. B. PROVIS,
Secretary.

Acting on behalf of the said Board under the authority of their General Order dated the twenty-sixth day of May, 1877.
