NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE (SWINE- FEVER) ORDER OF 1904.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Provisions of Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1896 applied with modifications to the City of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

1.—(1.) From and after the commencement of this Order the provisions of the Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1896, shall, as hereinafter modified, apply to the District of the Local Authority of the city of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

(2.) Notwithstanding anything in the said Order provided swine may be moved from a licensed market, fair or sale in the city to any lair in the city licensed under this Order by the Local Authority for this purpose, provided that the swine are marked in manner prescribed by the said Order and are accompanied by a Licence of the Local Authority authorising such movement. The swine shall be detained at the lair until they are slaughtered, unless they are moved to a licensed market, fair or sale, or to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse for immediate slaughter. The provisions of the said Order relating to the slaughter of swine exposed at a market, fair or sale and prohibiting their subsequent exposure for sale, shall not apply to swine moved to a licensed lair under this Order.

(3.) No swine, fat or store, shall be moved out of the city except as expressly authorised by this Order; provided that nothing in this provision shall be deemed to apply to the movement of swine where they are moved through the city by railway from a place outside the city to another place outside the city without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or rebooked within the city.

Swine only to be Moved out of City for Immediate Slaughter.

2.—(1.) Swine (not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place) may be moved out of the city with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the city, on the following conditions (namely):

- (i.) Every pig so moved shall be slaughtered within four days after and exclusive of the date on which the Licence for the movement is issued.
 - (ii.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than five days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted and the name or description of the slaughter-house, pig-sty, or other place of destination to which the swine are to be moved.
 - (iii.) The Local Authority of the city shall cause a copy thereof to be forthwith sent to the Local Authority of the District into which the swine are to be moved.
 - (iv.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article.
 - (v.) The swine while being moved under this Article and until they are slaughtered shall so far as practicable be kept separate from all swine not marked for slaughter under this Order or the above-mentioned Order.
 - (vi.) The Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination is situate shall take such steps as are necessary to insure that the swine are moved to the said place and are slaughtered there within the period prescribed by this Article.
 - (vii.) No pig shall be moved under this Article unless and until it has been marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.
- (2.) The movement of swine under this Article is subject to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board for prohibiting or regulating the movement of swine into the District of the Local Authority, but nothing in any such Regulation shall permit the movement of swine in contravention of this Order.

3. The Movement Licence shall be in the Form given in the Schedule to the Markets and Fairs (Swine-Fever) Order of 1896 with the requisite adaptations.

Limitation on Granting of Movement Licences.

it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

(5.) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any pig as required by this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

THE NEW RIVER COMPANY'S ACT, 1904.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 26 of the New River Company's Act, 1904 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1904"), and which Act is intitled "An Act to make provision for the application and distribution of the Water Stock issued to the New River Company in discharge of the sum payable as compensation for the transfer of their water undertaking to the Metropolitan Water Board for the reconstruction of the Company and its registration as a limited company and for other purposes." Notice is hereby given, that by section 18 of the Act of 1904 it is enacted that for the purposes of that Act there shall be an Examiner of Title (hereinafter and hereinafter referred to as "the Examiner of Title"), and that such Examiner of Title shall be nominated by the senior Judge of the Chancery Division of the High Court. By section 19 of the Act of 1904 it is enacted that every person who claims to be entitled in respect of any Adventurers' share or any King's share or any part of an Adventurers' or King's share to any Water Stock issued or issuable to the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London (in the Act of 1904 and in this notice referred to as "the Company") under the Metropolitan Water Act, 1902, as compensation for the transfer of their undertaking, and whose title to such Water Stock shall not have been accepted by the Company may at any time before the expiration of twelve months from the date of passing of the Act of 1904 apply to the Examiner of Title for a certificate of title, and shall produce all such deeds and documents relating to the title to such share or part of a share as the applicant has in his possession or under his control, and that the applicant shall, if required by the Examiner of Title so to do, but not otherwise, deliver an abstract of title in the usual form. Sections 20 and 21 of the Act of 1904 contain provisions as to searches and enquiries in relation to the title and information to be furnished to the Examiner of Title. Section 22 of the Act of 1904 enacts that unless the Company or the Examiner of Title shall otherwise direct, which they or he shall have absolute discretionary power to do, an advertisement of the application shall be inserted by the applicant once in each of two successive weeks in the "Times" newspaper and in one other daily newspaper circulating in the administrative county of London, giving the name and address of the applicant and a description of the share or part of a share to which the application relates sufficient to identify the same and requiring objections (if any) to be made to the Examiner of Title before the expiration of a stated period not less than two months from the appearance of the latest advertisement, and that any person may, by notice in writing signed by himself or his Solicitor, object to the granting of the certificate of title. Such notice to be in duplicate, and to state concisely the grounds of the objection and give the address in the United Kingdom of the person delivering the notice, and if it is delivered by a Solicitor shall give the name and address of the person on whose behalf it is given. Section 23 of the Act of 1904 enacts that the Examiner of Title shall thereupon serve by post on the applicant one duplicate of the notice of the objection, and unless the objection is withdrawn before the expiration of two months from the date of such service the Examiner of Title shall not proceed with the application. By section 24 of the Act of 1904 it is enacted that if no notice of objection shall have been delivered, pursuant to the foregoing provisions of that Act, or if all objections (if any) so delivered shall have been withdrawn, and if the Examiner of Title shall be of opinion that there is any person who if the Adventurers' or King's share or part of an Adventurers' or King's share in respect of which the application is made were sold either under any express or statutory trust for or power of sale to which the same may be subject or otherwise is or if sui juris would be able to give to the purchaser an effectual receipt for the purchase money thereof the Examiner of Title shall give to the applicant a certificate to that effect in duplicate in writing under his hand (in that Act referred to by the expression "Certificate of Title"), and one of such duplicates shall be forthwith transmitted by the applicant to the Company. Section 25 of the Act of 1904 contains provisions as to the remuneration, costs, charges and expenses of the Examiner of Title and as to the payment thereof or of part thereof. By section 27 of the Act of 1904 it is enacted that in any case where it is stated in a certificate of title that any person is or if sui juris would be able if the Adventurers' or King's share or the part of an Adventurers' or King's share to which such certificate of title relates were sold to give to the purchaser an effectual receipt for the purchase money thereof the receipt of such person, or if such person be a minor, idiot or lunatic, the receipt of the guardian or committee of his estate shall be an effectual discharge to the Company and the directors thereof for the Water Stock one-pound shares in the capital of the Company under the designation of the New River Company Limited or cash issuable, transferable, allottable, or payable in respect of such share or part of a share, and in such receipt expressed to be received, and shall exonerate them from being concerned to see to the application thereof and from being answerable for the misapplication or non-application thereof, and from all other claims and demands of or liability to such person in respect of such Adventurers' or King's share or the part of the Adventurers' or King's share to which such certificate relates.
