PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for providing such a rent-charge as is contemplated by the eleventh section of that Act.

"Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three and published in the London Gazette upon the following day, and ratifying a scheme prepared and submitted by us, the benefice of Saint Mary Aldermary with Saint Thomas Apostle, in the city of London, and the benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, in the same city, were united into one benefice as in the same Order is mentioned, and the union of the said two benefices has taken effect, and consequently all the property constituting the endowments of the said two benefices has by virtue of the same Order been transferred and annexed to the united benefice which was created by the same Order by the name and style of 'The United Rectory of Saint Mary Aldermary with Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.'

"And whereas it was provided by the said Order that the permanent endowments of the said united benefice should, after the said union, be made subject to the payment of any annual rent-charge in perpetuity, not exceeding the annual sum of three hundred pounds, in favour of the benefice of Saint John, Waterloo-road, Lambeth, then in the diocese of Winchester but now in the diocese of Rochester, which said annual rent-charge should be charged upon some part or parts (to be duly specified) of the said permanent endowments by virtue of any duly gazetted Order in Council ratifying a scheme to be prepared under the said eleventh section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, in which scheme may be contained any lawful powers and remedies for the recovery of the same annual rent-charge, provided that such rent-charge should not commence nor come into operation until the benefices which have been united as aforesaid should be held by an Incumbent who had not held the incumbency of either of the said benefices previously to the taking effect of the said union.

"And whereas the Reverend Bernard Reynolds, a Prebendary of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, is now the Incumbent of the said united benefice, having been instituted to such united benefice on the sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three.

"And whereas the said Bernard Reynolds did not hold the incumbency of either of the said benefices which have been united as aforesaid previously to the taking effect of the said union.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, acting as the patrons of the said united benefice (in testimony of which consent they have affixed their Common or Capitular Seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the vestry of each of the four parishes of Saint Mary Aldermary, Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (in testimony of which consent this scheme is signed in the case of each vestry by the chairman of a meeting of the same vestry, duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, acting as the Bishop of the diocese in which the said benefices which have been united as aforesaid are situate (in testimony of which consent he has affixed his signature and his episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the said sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, such of the permanent endowments of the said united benefice as are described and set forth in the schedule to this scheme shall be subject in perpetuity to one annual rent-charge of two hundred pounds, the same rent-charge to be payable and paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint John Waterloo-road, Lambeth, or the representative or representatives of any deceased Incumbent thereof on the one hand, and to his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint John, Waterloo-road, Lambeth, shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent-charge; that is to say, power if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment
