WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838" after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church

“and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect.”

And whereas by section eight of the Church Building Act, 1839, it is, amongst other things, further enacted, “That when by any Order of His Majesty in Council, as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the Incumbent or Incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands tenements, tithes, rent-charges and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the controul or interference of the Incumbent or Incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid.”

And whereas the Right Reverend Watkin Herbert, Lord Bishop of Bangor, hath made a representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

“I, Watkin Herbert, by Divine permission Bishop of Bangor, do, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Pluralities Act, 1838, hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

“1. There is, in the county of Carnarvon, and my diocese of Bangor, the rectory of Edern, with the ancient chapelries of Carngiwch and Pistyll, containing according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one a population of one thousand three hundred and nineteen, Edern containing four hundred and sixty-eight, and Carngiwch and Pistyll containing eight hundred and fifty-one. The gross annual value of the said benefice arising from tithe rent-charge and other sources is three hundred and sixty-three pounds, and the net annual value is two hundred and thirty-six pounds, or thereabouts.

“2. The said chapelry of Carngiwch comprises eight hundred and seventy-six acres or thereabouts and the said chapelry of Pistyll contains three thousand four hundred and seventy-nine acres or thereabouts, the boundaries of which are well known and defined, the tithes as commuted and apportioned arising from the said chapelries amount to about one hundred and eighty-seven pounds, and both chapelries have churches (which are situated about four and six miles respectively from the parish church of Edern) with accommodation in each for one hundred persons, in which churches baptisms, churchings, marriages and burials have been performed from time immemorial. Both chapelries are separate parishes for civil purposes.

“3. There is a residence house at Edern which will continue to be the residence of the Rector of Edern.

“4. It appears to me that under the provisions of the said Pluralities Acts the said chapelries of Carngiwch and Pistyll may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Edern and constituted a separate parish and benefice.

“5. The said benefice of Edern-cum-Carngiwch-cum-Pistyll is in my patronage in right of my Bishopric and the Reverend John Morgan is the present Incumbent thereof.

“6. Pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing annexed to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me the alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent thereon in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace, together with this my consent thereto in writing as patron, and the consent in writing of the said incumbent to the intent that if your Grace shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied with such scheme you may certify the same and such consents by your report to His Majesty in Council.”

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop is as follows:—

“SCHEME.

“That the said chapelries of Carngiwch and Pistyll with the churches belonging thereto shall be separated from the said parish of Edern and constituted a separate parish and benefice for ecclesiastical purposes.

“That the parishioners of each of such chapelries shall be entitled to accommodation in the church situate therein, but shall cease to be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Edern, except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting in the said church of Edern, and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same.

“That marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials shall be solemnized and performed in the churches of Carngiwch and Pistyll for the inhabitants of the said respective chapelries, and all fees, dues, ecclesiastical offerings and emoluments arising from the said chapelries shall henceforth belong to the Incumbent of the benefice of Carngiwch-cum-Pistyll.

“That of the endowments of the said benefice of Edern there shall be transferred to Carngiwch and Pistyll the commuted tithe rent-charge of one hundred and eighty-seven pounds arising in respect of the said chapelries so as aforesaid to be separated from Edern.

"That the patronage of Carngiwch-cum-Pistyll shall be vested in the Bishop of Bangor for the time being.

"Given under my hand the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four.

"Watkin Bangor."

And whereas the said Bishop, as patron of the said benefice has consented in writing to the said scheme, and the Reverend John Morgan, the Incumbent, has signed the consent following:—

"CONSENT of the Incumbent.

"I, the Reverend John Morgan, the present Incumbent of the benefice of Edern with the chapelries of Carngiwch and Pistyll, signify to your Grace my consent to the scheme above proposed and set forth and to every matter and thing therein contained. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four.

"John Morgan."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the twenty-ninth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said chapelries of Carngiwch and Pistyll may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Edern and constituted a separate parish and benefice for ecclesiastical purposes only under the provisions of the Pluralities Act 1838.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the said Lord Bishop as the patron or person entitled to present in right of his Bishopric to the said benefice of Edern-cum-Carngiwch-cum-Pistyll in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend John Morgan being the present Incumbent thereof has been transmitted to us by the said Lord Bishop for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Pluralities Act 1838 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do

If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Spring Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.*, to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known-agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Spring Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Spring Assizes Act, 1879.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Spring Assizes, 1905.
