

III. As often and so long as the aforesaid offices of Resident Commissioner and Commandant-General are held by the same person, sub-sections five and six of section forty-eight of the said Order shall cease to have effect, provided that in no case shall the Resident Commissioner and Commandant-General take action of the nature of a military operation without the authority of the High Commissioner.

IV. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order and of the commencement thereof.

V. This Order shall come into operation forthwith and shall be published in the Gazette, and the High Commissioner shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto.

VI. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

VII. This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1905.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by virtue of Section 4 of the Board of Education Act, 1899, an Order in Council was made on the sixth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Order), providing for the establishment of a Registration Authority, called the Teachers' Registration Council, for the purpose of forming and keeping a Register of Teachers; and for the manner in which such Register should be kept.

And whereas paragraph 2 of the Principal Order provided that the members of the Teachers' Registration Council should hold office for three years from the date of that Order.

And whereas paragraph 6 of the Principal Order provided that after the expiration of three years from the date of that Order the constitution of the Council should be such as might be determined by Order in Council.

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Him by the Board of Education Act, 1899, and all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

- (1.) The term of office of the members of the Registration Council shall be continued for one year beyond the three years specified in paragraph 2 of the Principal Order.
- (2.) The constitution of the Teachers' Registration Council shall continue to be that provided by paragraph 1 of the Principal Order for one year beyond the three years specified by paragraph 6 of that Order.
- (3.) This Order shall be deemed to have come into force and have effect as from the sixth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section six hundred and fifty-nine of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" (which is a section in Part XI of that Act and which re-enacts similar provisions by the said Act repealed of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854), it is (among other things) enacted that His Majesty may by Order in Council fix the establishments to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys, and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of these establishments, and that an increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed shall not be made without the consent of the Board of Trade.

And whereas by section one of the Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898, it is (among other things) provided that references in Part XI of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the Mercantile Marine Fund shall be construed as references to the General Lighthouse Fund by the now reciting Act constituted.

And whereas Her late Majesty, by Orders in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and the eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, was pleased to fix the establishment which might be maintained by the Commissioners of Irish Lights, and the amount of the salaries to be paid to the officers of the said establishment.

And whereas it is expedient that the establishment of the said Commissioners should be varied in manner hereinafter appearing.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Board of Trade have consented to such variation of the establishment.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other powers Him thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to fix as follows, that is to say:—

The establishment of the Commissioners of Irish Lights shall, as from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and four, consist of the officers named in the schedule to this Order at the salaries of which the minimum, annual increase, and maximum are respectively mentioned in the same schedule, but the annual increase of such salaries shall (except in the case of the Secretary, the Engineers and the Inspector of Lights) be only granted on a certificate by the Commissioners of Irish Lights that the preceding period of the officer's service has been distinguished by zeal, industry, and regularity.

Provided that—

- (1) The salary of Mr. Owen Armstrong, the present Secretary, shall be eight hundred pounds per annum.
- (2) While Mr. G. N. McMurdo holds a clerkship on the said establishment, the class of clerks next above the Lower Grade Clerks in the schedule shall be three in number instead of two, and the number of Lower Grade Clerks shall be two instead of three.
- (3) Mr. E. A. Leggett, one of the present Lower Grade Clerks, shall be eligible for
