FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1905.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the ninth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Low Town, Tynemouth, and of the new parish of Western Town, Tynemouth, both in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Newcastle.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty and published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of the same month, three separate districts for spiritual purposes were formed out of the parish of Tynemouth, in the said county of Northumberland, and at that time in the diocese of Durham, but now in the said diocese of Newcastle, and one of the said districts was named ‘The District of Low Town, Tynemouth.’

“And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the sixteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and published in the London Gazette on the same day, part of the said parish of Tynemouth was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated Church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Tynemouth, and the said district chapelry was named ‘The District Chapelry of Western Town, Tynemouth.’

“And whereas the said district of Low Town, Tynemouth, and the said district chapelry of Western Town, Tynemouth, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Low Town, Tynemouth, and of the said new parish of Western Town, Tynemouth, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Arthur Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Low Town, Tynemouth, and of the said new parish of Western Town, Tynemouth, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said new parish of Western Town, Tynemouth, which is described
