

28. A keeper shall provide, in a suitable and convenient situation for the use of lodgers, properly constructed water-closets in the proportion of one such water-closet for every twelve lodgers; and shall cause such water-closets and every part of the apparatus of such water-closets to be kept clean, and shall cause the same and every drain or means of drainage with which they or either of them may communicate, to be maintained in good order and efficient condition.

29. A keeper shall cause every part of the structure of a house to be maintained at all times in good order.

30. A keeper shall cause the yard, area, fore-court, or other open space within the curtilage of a house to be maintained at all times in good order and thoroughly clean, and free from any accumulation of filth or other refuse.

31. A keeper and every person employed in a house shall not receive any female lodger into such house.

32. A licensed keeper and every person employed in a licensed house shall not knowingly lodge, or knowingly harbour, any thief or reputed thief, any prostitute or reputed prostitute, or any other person of improper character.

33. A keeper shall keep a register and shall enter therein the name, age, and nationality of every seaman lodger received into a house, the name of the last vessel from which such seaman lodger was discharged, and the port of discharge, with the name and port of registry of any vessel he may join while resident in such house, and his declared destination on leaving.

34. A keeper shall put up or affix and keep up or affixed a copy of these bye-laws in a suitable and conspicuous position in the common sitting-room of a house in such a manner that the contents of such copy may be clearly and distinctly visible and legible, and shall enter upon the space left for the purpose at the foot of that copy, a scale of the charge per day for board, lodging, and necessaries made in such house, and shall not make a higher charge than is provided by the scale on any pretence whatever.

35. Upon the Council being satisfied that any licensed keeper has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or the Acts amending the same, or that such keeper has kept, or is keeping, or is allowing to be kept, a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or is or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from such house any person of improper or immoral character who may have entered therein, or has failed, or is failing to comply with these bye-laws or any of them, the Council may suspend or revoke all licences granted to such keeper.

36. No person shall obstruct any officer or person engaged in securing the execution of these bye-laws.

37. Every person offending against any of the foregoing bye-laws, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence, and in the case of a continuing offence to a penalty of five pounds for every day during which the offence may be continued after conviction for the first offence.

38. These bye-laws shall come into force on the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two.

The Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the county borough of Salford was hereunto affixed, in pursuance of a resolution of the Council, dated the eighth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and two, in that behalf, in the presence of—

L. C. EVANS,
Town Clerk.

Sanctioned—

G. W. BALFOUR,
President of the Board of Trade.

26th February, 1902.
