

travelling in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

IV. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage, shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

V. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or spit in or upon any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

VI. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil or damage the cushions or the linings or remove or deface any number, plate, printed or other notice in or on the carriage or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

VII. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage, after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and, if found in the interior of any carriage, shall, on the request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

VIII. Every passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorized officer of the Council the fare legally demandable for the journey, and a ticket corresponding thereto shall be delivered to such passenger by the conductor, and such passenger shall accept and retain such ticket, until demanded previous to or at the end of the journey.

IX. Every passenger shall show his ticket (if any) to the conductor, or any duly authorized officer of the Council, when required by him so to do. Any passenger failing or refusing to accept or retain or to show his ticket as aforesaid shall be required to pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger, and, in default of showing such ticket, or of payment of such fare, shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws.

X. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Bexley Council Tramways, shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

XI. Personal and other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front, or driver's platform, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

XII. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Council shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platform of any carriage or stand on the roof, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage.

XIII. No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or mount upon any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any carriage, or without the consent of the conductor travel therein, otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers,

XIV. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or upon any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so.

XV. When a carriage contains the full licensed number of passengers, a notice to that effect shall be placed in conspicuous letters and in a conspicuous position on the carriage.

XVI. No person shall enter, or mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, or mount, or leave any carriage whilst in motion.

XVII. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or upon any carriage except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or upon any carriage in breach of this regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor, or other duly authorized servant of the Council.

XVIII. No person shall travel in or upon any carriage of the Council with loaded firearms.

XIX. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Council in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Council.

XX. No passenger shall smoke or carry lighted pipes, cigars, or cigarettes either inside or on the platform of any carriage, nor on that part of the top of a car which may be reserved for non-smokers.

XXI. No person shall pull or sound the signal bells provided for use by the Council's servants, or handle or otherwise interfere with the controller, brakes, trolley pole, wires, or other electric or working gear of the carriage, or of the electric equipment of the tramways.

XXII. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these Bye-laws or Regulations to the best of his ability.

XXIII. The expression "Conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employ of the Council and having charge of a carriage.

XXIV. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use, a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

XXV. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws is liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

The provisions of the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, with respect to the recovery of penalties, are applicable to the penalties for breach of these Regulations or Bye-laws.

XXVI. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 31st day of May, 1905.
