

or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the burial ground of the Cathedral of Winchester :

And whereas Orders in Council were made on the thirteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, the fourteenth July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and the sixteenth May, one thousand nine hundred and four, varying the said Order in Council of the thirteenth September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four :

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as varied by the above-mentioned Orders, in so far as it affects burials in the burial ground of the Cathedral of Winchester should be further varied.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Orders shall have effect subject to the following exception or qualification, viz. :—

That notwithstanding anything in the said Orders in Council of the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, the fourteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four, in an earthen grave to be constructed in the part of the said burial ground called the "Great Water Close" situated on the south side of the Lady Chapel, the burial may be allowed at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the bodies of the Right Reverend George Henry Sumner, Suffragan Bishop of Guildford, and his wife, at their decease.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of All Saints, Allhallows, in the county of Kent, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the civil parish of Allhallows, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed :

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the twentieth day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said civil parish without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

ALLHALLOWS.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of All Saints, Allhallows, in the county of Kent; and in the churchyard, except as follows :—

In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.
