

time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the eighteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church and, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard of Elmswell, in the county of Suffolk:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the eighteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred, be varied by substituting for the excepting clause (c) contained in the said Order the following excepting clause, viz. :—

(c) In the said churchyard, in a grave space situate to the north-west of the tower in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground of the body of the Reverend James Hipwell at his decease.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of May, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials, in the parish churchyard of Saint Mary, Leighton, in the county of Salop, from the time specified in such Order:

And whereas the time for the discontinuance of burials therein, was, by Order in Council of the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five, postponed to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five.

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Mary, Leighton, in the county of Salop, be further postponed to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and five.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of May, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of All Saints, Terrington, in the North Riding of the county of York, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that so much of the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, as relates to the parish of Terrington, should be varied, by substituting for the provisions contained in the said Order relating to Terrington the following provisions, viz. :—

TERRINGTON.—That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of All Saints, Terrington, in the North Riding of the county of York; and in the whole of the churchyard, provided that in the churchyard, in grave spaces in which no
